The Last Caravan:

The Last Caravan Thurston Clarke, 2016-01-12 The Last Caravan is a powerful and dramatic account of how the great African drought of the early 1970s transformed the nomadic Tuareg the famous blue veiled men of the Beau Geste legend Thurston Clarke recounts their story in his words and theirs allowing them to come to life as they describe their sufferings and wanderings in search of food and comfort Their story is a powerful one of ecological disaster of the courage and nobility of an ancient people facing extinction and of the struggle to preserve their families and way of life The Last Caravan and Other Short Stories Bello Musa Dankano, 2006 What can be more exciting or fulfilling than to bring your enemy to submission or at least see him brought to his knees like the hunchback El Noor who was virtually abducted for ritual purposes only to emerge victorious after the jinn in him has intervened Jinn El Noor couldn't believe that he had one under his beck and call Enter the weird camel bold and daring whose anger humbled the powerful king of Sumaiya after a reign of terror that has turned the people into servitude unacceptable to the camel Then the old Whale that ruminates on the excesses of the human species and vowed to bring pollution to an end In this two part story African wizardry and witchcraft has gone global in line with the much talked about globalization after conquering the home front When will the wealth of the world be equitably distributed so that the wealthy can sleep with their two eyes closed And won't you be happy if you are made to be productive at last or do you still prefer servitude and invite the wrath of the brats who warned the people of Ashadafia Get up and be productive Oh Africa my Africa where the extended family system comes in handy in a world fast becoming anonymous and unfamiliar Agenda, 1978 The story of Stanley, the hero of Africa, by E.A.
