The Last Parade:

Parade's End Tom Stoppard, 2012-09-11 Tom Stoppard's dramatisation for BBC TV of Parade's End by Ford Madox Ford will bring new readers to the novel as well as giving Stoppard's audience much that is original to his inventive version of a masterpiece of modernist English literature. This is the story of Christopher Tietjens, the last Tory, his beautiful, disconcerting wife, Sylvia, and the virginal young suffragette, Valentine Wannop, who completes this triangle of love among the English upper class before and during the Great War. Parade's End Volume II Ford Madox Ford, 2011-08-01 No more Hope, no more Glory, no more parades for you and me any more. Nor for the country, Nor for the world. I dare say, says Christopher Tietjens, to a war-damaged fellow officer under fire on the Western Front. No More Parades continues Parade's End from Tietjens' return to the Front in 1917. Ford's searing account of the war is unforgettable: supplies are inadequate, orders confused, men die among the endless muddles, endless follies. Death replaces love. Tietjens' betrayal by his wife, Sylvia, mirrors the violence and dishonour of the war. No More Parades includes the first reliable text based on the hand-corrected typescript and first editions, a major critical introduction by Joseph Wiesenfarth, Professor Emeritus of English at the University of Wisconsin-Madison and author of Ford Madox Ford and the Regiment of Women, an account of the novel's composition and reception, annotations and a glossary explaining historical references, military terms, literary and topical allusions, a full textual apparatus including transcriptions of significant deletions and revisions, a bibliography of further reading.

Eerie Archives

Volume 9 Various, 2012-01-03 Eerie Archives Volume 9 collects issues 42-46 of the original Eerie magazine run. This volume features classic stories from comic book legends Richard Corben, Doug Moench, Reed Crandall and Paul Neary, color covers by Luis Dominguez and Sanjulian, as well as mind-melting contributions from Eerie regulars Tom Sutton, Steve Skeates, Esteban Maroto and Jerry Grandenetti. Whether traveling through space in Someday or trapped in a mad scientist's greenhouse in The Root of Evil, you'll be mesmerized by these timeless tales of horror. This collection also reprints all color stories, letters, pages and articles from the original magazines, and features a new foreword by Timothy Truman, modern Creepy King Conan.

Sea Change at Annapolis H. Michael Gelfand, 2009-09-15 Since 1845 the United States Naval Academy has prepared professional military leaders at its Annapolis, Maryland campus. Although it remains steeped in a culture of tradition and discipline, the Academy is not impervious to change. Dispelling the myth that the Academy is a bastion of tradition unmarked by progress, H. Michael Gelfand examines challenges to the Naval Academy's culture from both inside and outside the Academy's walls between 1949 and 2000, an era of dramatic social change in American history. Drawing on more than two hundred oral histories, extensive archival research and his own participatory observation at the Academy, Gelfand demonstrates that events at Annapolis reflect the transformation of American culture and society at large in the Cold War and post-Cold War periods. In eight chapters, he discusses recruiting and minority midshipmen, the end of mandatory attendance at religious services, women's experiences as they sought and achieved admission and later served as midshipmen.

and the responses of multiple generations of midshipmen to societal changes particularly during the Vietnam War era This cultural history not only sheds light on events at the Naval Academy but also offers a novel perspective on democratic ideals in the United States
