Last War Drum - The North West Campaign of 1885 Canadian War Museum,1972 The Last War Drum Desmond Morton,1972 The Early Northwest Gregory P. Marchildon,2008 This publication is the inaugural volume of the History of the Prairie West series Each volume in the series focuses on a particular topic and is composed of articles previously published in Prairie Forum and written by experts in the field The original articles are supplemented by additional photographs and other illustrative material The Western Métis Patrick C. Douaud,2007 This book contains a collection of articles concerning the Western Metis published in Prairie Forum between 1978 and 2007 These articles have been chosen for the breadth and scope of the investigations upon which they are based and for the reflections they will arouse in anyone interested in Western Canadian history and politics The Mounted Police and Prairie Society, 1873-1919 University of Regina. Canadian Plains Research Center,1998 This collection of essays presents a variety of scholarly explorations of the nature and role of the Mounties in the Prairie Provinces from the formation of the North West Mounted Police in 1873 74 to its transformation into the Royal Canadian Mounted Police in 1919 20 The essays are grouped into five broad themes relations with First Nations law enforcement social issues including relations with minority groups and labour movements characteristics of the police force and crisis and change police immigrant relations response to labour unrest and the origins of domestic intelligence and counter subversion An epilogue presents the case for the dramatic change of the force after 1919 20 and the new force s use of the positive image created by the old force Arming and Disarming R. Blake Brown,2012-01-01 From the Cole Polytechnique shootings of 1989 to the political controversy surrounding the elimination of the federal long gun registry the issue of gun control has been a subject of fierce debate in Canada But in fact firearm regulation has been a sharply contested issue in the country since Confederation Arming and Disarming offers the first comprehensive history of gun control in Canada from the colonial period to the present In this sweeping immersive book R Blake Brown outlines efforts to regulate the use of guns by young people punish the misuse of arms impose licensing regimes and create firearm registries Brown also challenges many popular assumptions about Canadian history suggesting that gun ownership was far from universal during much of the colonial period and that many nineteenth century lawyers including John A Macdonald believed in a limited right to bear arms Arming and Disarming provides a careful exploration of how social economic cultural legal and constitutional concerns shaped gun legislation and its implementation as well as how these factors defined Canada s historical and contemporary gun culture Riel's Defence Hans V. Hansen,2014-06-01 A multi disciplinary study of two of the most poignant speeches in Canadian history The American Military on the Frontier James P. Tate,1978 The Battle of Batoche Walter Hildebrandt,1989 Rough Justice Martin L. Friedland,1991 Based on presentations given by professors of English literature from the U of Toronto in a law school seminar at the University 13 literary scholars including the late Northrop Frye explore the subject of crime in a wide range of literary works Annotation
