Lao-Tzu: Te-Tao Ching Robert G. Henricks, 2010-11-24 Lao tzu s Te Tao Ching has been treasured for thousands of years for its poetic statement of life s most profound and elusive truths Although the Te Tao Ching is widely read the author s enigmatic style and the less than perfect condition of the Chinese originals make many of its brief poems difficult to understand So readers of find literature hailed the discovery in 1973 of two copies of the Te Tao Ching which had been buried in 168 B C These manuscripts are more than five centuries older than any others known and they correct many defects of later versions their grammar and vocabulary frequently make the classic easier to understand lost lines are restored as many as three in some poems some sections follow a more logical sequence Such differences make it necessary to reevaluate traditional interpretations of the Te Tao Ching and Professor Henricks has done this in an extensive commentary to his excellent new translation In addition Professor Henricks has provided an introduction that explains the basics of Taoism and discusses the many other important finds from Ma want tui Tao Te Ching Laozi, 1996-05-07 Dating for around 300 BC this is an early work of the Chinese school of philosophy called Taoism It offers a complete view of the cosmos and how human beings should respond to it It has mystical insight into the nature of things and forms a basis for a humane morality and political utopia

The Way And Virtue The Tao Te Ching is an anti authoritarian treatise which posits that the way of virtue lies in non action Wu Wei through a recognition of the natural universal force known as the Tao The Tao flows without effort and like water goes where it will without striving and effects change and growth To be virtuous one should emulate the Tao and engage in non action not forcing an effect or outcome Human made laws it claims cannot make one virtuous and cannot contribute to good behavior inner peace or empathy with others because they are not in tune with nature It is only by recognizing the Tao and one's connection to it and all things that one may achieve these goals To recognize the Tao one must know what it is and so it is defined in the first chapter The Tao The Way that can be spoken of is not the Constant Tao The name that can be named is not a Constant Name Nameless is the origin of Heaven and Earth The named is the Mother of all things Thus the constant void enables one to observe the true essence The constant being enables one to see the outward manifestations These two come paired from the same origin But when the essence is manifested it has a different name This same origin is called The Profound Mystery As profound the mystery as it can be It is the Gate to the essence of all life Lao Tzu The Old Master Lao Tzu was an ancient Chinese philosopher and poet well known for penning the book Tao Te Ching He was the founder of philosophy of Taoism a religious and ethical custom of ancient China He is largely respected as a religious deity in various traditional Chinese religious schools of thought He is also believed by some to be an older contemporary of the famous philosopher Confucius The Tao Te Ching literally meaning The Way and Its Power presents the idea of Tao as being the end all and be all of existence It is extremely powerful yet down to earth It is the source of all being in the world The book intends to guide people on how to return to the laws and ways of nature to maintain the balance of the Tao Lao Tzu's philosophy was a simple one He was against putting effort and striving as he thought struggle is not only futile but also hinders productivity In his theory of wu wei he advises to simply do nothing By this he means not to go against the forces of nature wait for the gush of events nature brings to you and dive right in He advised not to struggle to change the natural order of things but to bring spontaneity to one's actions as one holds on to the nature's way of life Followers of Taoism believe that striving for nothing will never lead them to failure The one who has never failed is always successful thus becoming powerful Lao Tzu's journey began as he set foot towards the western border of China currently Tibet He was saddened by what he saw around him men being diverted away from nature and the goodness it brings A guard he met on the border asked Lao to write down his teachings as he went This is when he wrote the famous Tao Te Ching a 5 000 character account of his thoughts and philosophical ideas Tao Te Ching Laozi, 1985 Book Jacket Status Jacketed Written during the golden age of Chinese philosophy and composed partly in prose and partly in verse the Tao Te Ching is surely the most terse and economical of the world's great religious texts In a series of short profound chapters it elucidates the idea of the Tao or the Way an idea that in its ethical practical and spiritual dimensions has become essential to the life of China's enormously powerful civilization In the process of this elucidation Lao tzu both clarifies and deepens those central religious
