Society in War Per Molander, Försvarets forskningsanstalt (Sweden), 1988      Society in War Per Molander, 1994-06
'Bomen zijn waardevolle bijkomstigheden' Bart Tritsmans, 2016-10-31 Stedelijk groen in de moderne stad Stedelijke groenruimtes spelen vandaag een cruciale rol in debatten over de leefbaarheid van steden Sinds de tweede helft van de negentiende eeuw al duikt de vraag naar stedelijk groen op als een beleidsthema Bomen zijn waardevolle bijkomstigheden gaat op zoek naar de veranderende betekenis van stedelijk groen in de moderne stad Op basis van de casus Antwerpen onderzoekt Tritsmans in welke mate de stedelijke groenruimte onderhevig is aan veranderingen in typologie morfologie en gebruik maar ook hoe maatschappelijke debatten en de beleving van stedelijk groen elkaar beïnvloeden De auteur zoomt in op de geplande stedelijke groenruimte vanuit het Antwerpse stedelijke beleid en plaatst deze tegen de achtergrond van de internationale stedenbouw Aan de hand van de onderhandelingsprocessen en de fricties over groen in het stedelijk weefsel belicht Tritsmans de stedelijke actoren en wijzigende verhoudingen in de Antwerpse context Tot slot komt ook de individuele beleving en het gebruik van groen door de stadsbewoners zelf aan bod en geeft de auteur een boeiende inkijk in de dagelijkse ervaring van groen in de stad Rijkelijk geïllustreerd en met een zeer divers bronnenbestand biedt Bomen zijn waardevolle bijkomstigheden de lezer een coherent en levendig beeld van de geschiedenis van stedelijk groen Bomen zijn waardevolle bijkomstigheden is een uitspraak van Edward L. O'Neil architectuurcriticus en medeoprichter van de KVNS Antwerpen 1915      Contemporary Archaeology and the City Laura McAtackney, Krysta Ryzewski, 2017 This book argues archaeology is uniquely placed to contribute a variety of perspectives on the current life cycles of cities including processes of decay revitalization and transformation It foregrounds the materialities of post industrial post modern and other urban transformations through a diverse international collection of case studies      Planning Perspectives for Education Aubrey Pearre Johnston, James F. McNamara, 1975      The Blitz and Its Legacy Mark Clapson, Peter J. Larkham, 2013 The Blitz and Its Legacy is a fascinating volume which includes war experiences of destruction architecture urban design the political process of planning and reconstruction and also popular perceptions of rebuilding Its findings provide very timely lessons which highlight the value of learning from historical precedent Drawing together leading scholars and new researchers from across the fields of planning history architecture and geography this volume presents an historical and cultural commentary on the immediate and longer term impacts of wartime destruction      Deprivation, State Interventions and Urban Communities in Britain, 1968-79 Peter Shapely, 2017-08-16 Focusing on a series of policy initiatives from the late 1960s through to the end of the 1970s this book looks at how successive governments tried to address growing concerns about urban deprivation across Britain It provides unique insights into policy and governance and into the socio economic and cultural causes and consequences of poverty Starting with the impact of redevelopment policies immigration and the rise of the inner city this book examines the pressures and challenges that explain the development of policy by successive Labour and Conservative governments It looks at the effectiveness and limits of different community development approaches and at the inadequacies of policy in tackling urban deprivation In doing so the book highlights the restricted impact of pilot projects and reform of public services in resolving deprivation as well as the broader limits of social planning and state welfare Crucially it also plots the shift in policy from an emphasis on achieving statutory service efficiencies and rolling out social development programmes towards an ever greater stress on regeneration and support for private capital as the solution to transforming the inner city

British Economic and Social History R. C. Richardson, William Henry Chaloner, 1996

European Cities, 1890-1930s Helen Elizabeth Meller, 2001 1890 1930 was a formative period in the evolution of the modern town planning movement It was a time when the relationship between social development and the physical environment in all its complexities was being explored and when the prospect of future change could run ahead of the problems of implementation This study highlights the richness and variety of European responses to modernisation by offering a comparative approach to exploring these themes in cities in Britain France Germany Spain and Central Europe Of key importance in the development of European cities during this period was the first world war which accelerated technological changes at the same time as inspiring both nostalgia for the past and a desire to create new ways of urban living For large provincial cities that had grown in the 19th century imagining a new future was the greatest challenge What kind of understanding was necessary to promote effective new developments How could these be implemented in the face of economic social and political change Who made the decisions Answers to these questions must be drawn from a number of directions from the political and administrative structures of nation states from the economic and social history of Europe from the growth of new professional expertise in dealing with urban problems and the international exchange of ideas from the specific histories of cities and from the actions of individuals who were ultimately responsible for creating new possibilities

Government reports annual index, 199? Moral Issues in Military Decision Making Anthony E. Hartle, 2004 Much has changed in warfare in recent years with America now dominant on the international scene and terrorism the new enemy In light of these changes the need for moral grounding in military actions is a more pressing concern than ever When it was originally published Moral Issues in Military Decision Making reflected the concerns posed by nuclear stalemate and the lessons of Vietnam In that highly praised work Anthony Hartle outlined the essential elements of the Professional Military Ethic created for American military forces In this new edition he reexamines the moral foundations for America s military leadership in the post 9 11 era Considering world affairs since the first edition the Gulf War Bosnia Afghanistan Iraq 9 11 and the emergence of the United States as an unrivaled military power Hartle explains how these events have raised ethical issues that differ dramatically from those of the Cold War by the war on terrorism homeland defense asymmetric warfare the proliferation of American military interventions and the UN s role in peacekeeping operations Using meticulously analyzed case studies twice as many as in the first edition he considers such moral dilemmas as torture challenging superior officers use of overwhelming force and responding to fire in the presence of civilian shields In this revision Hartle examines further the status of professional military ethics in light of current affairs changes in the articulation of military values and recent research In a new chapter on human rights he relates moral principles directly to values embedded in the Constitution and argues that overwhelming American military power cannot succeed unless it is accompanied by the moral force of the values it seeks to protect difficulties of applying conventional laws of war and human rights doctrine in military operations Hartle convincingly shows that national security is as much about the preservation of moral principles as it is about the protection of America s citizens and borders His book demonstrates that the American military must continue to observe those principles in order to be effective in its primary mission

Development Planning in Surinam in Historical Perspective Jan Hansdew Adhin,1961      Catalogue of the Educational Division of the South Kensington Museum ,1876      Catalogue of the educational division of the South Kensington museum Victoria and Albert museum,1876      In Perspective Laurence C. Judd,1988      Combined Arms Warfare in the Twentieth Century Jonathan Mallory House,2001

For centuries the world has witnessed the development and use of increasingly complex and powerful military systems and technologies In the process the art of war has truly become the art of combined arms warfare in which infantry artillery air support intelligence and other key elements are all coordinated for maximum effect Nowhere has this trend been more visible than in the history of twentieth century warfare Originally published as an essential in house study for U S Army officers during the 1980s this much revised and expanded edition remains the most complete study available on the subject Rewritten with a much wider readership in mind it both retains its enormous practical utility for military professionals and provides a valuable and appealing introduction for scholars and general readers Jonathan House author of the original work brings the story of combined arms up to the present covering among other things Desert Storm the war in Chechnya and the rise of smart weapons and related technologies He traces the evolution of tactics weapons and organization in five major militaries American British German Russian and French over 100 years of warfare Revealing both continuities and contrasts within and between these fighting forces he also provides illuminating glimpses of Israeli and Japanese contributions to combined arms doctrine Expanding his insightful analysis of the world wars and the wars in Korea and Vietnam House also offers much new material focused on the post Vietnam period Throughout he analyzes such issues as command and control problems of highly centralized organizations the development of special operations forces advances in weapons technology including ballistic and anti ballistic missile systems the trade offs involved in using heavy versus light armed forces and the enduring obstacles to effective cooperation between air and land forces His strong critique of the air superiority propaganda that came out of the Gulf War is sure to spark some heated debates Rigorously comparative House s study addresses significant questions about how nations prepare for war learn or don t learn its harsh lessons and adapt to changing times and technologies Unique in the annals of the literature on warfare it will be the standard work on this subject for a long time to come

Economic Growth in World Perspective Denys Lawrence Munby, 1966 Essays on economic development problems in the world today and the ensuing welfare and social change and on international cooperation between developed countries and developing countries Views on the participation of governments and of people in economic planning Opinion and attitude of the Church
