British and Irish Home Arts and Industries, 1880-1914 Janice Helland,2007 This is the first book to study the revival of cottage crafts that accompanied the growing interest in an arts and crafts movement in Britain and Ireland It focuses upon three regional craft associations organised sponsored and promoted by British women the Donegal Industrial Fund founded 1883 by Londoner Alice Rowland Hart the Irish Industries Association founded 1886 by Ishbel Countess of Aberdeen and supported by a number of Irish and British aristocrats and Highland Home Industries revived in 1886 by the Marchioness of Stafford later Millicent Duchess of Sutherland The three examples have been selected because although like many of their counterparts the patrons endorsed a relationship between work and morality they also recognised the significance of consumption and market Their patrons understood the value of spectacle the usefulness of advertising and the efficacy of exhibition The emphasis is upon how and why they adopted these strategies to promote and sell cottage crafts for the benefit of rural workers The introduction provides an overview of home arts and industries in Britain as part of the late nineteenth century craft revival and examines the difference between the large English based Home Arts and Industries Association and other home arts organisations in England Scotland Wales and Ireland Edinburgh Companion to Irish Modernism Vicki Mahaffey,Sian White,Maud Ellmann,2021-05-05 The Edinburgh Companion to Irish Modernism presents a fresh perspective on received understandings of Irish modernism The introduction draws connections between modernism in the arts and modernism as a resistant liberal relativist movement within the Catholic Church that was gathering momentum in the same period In religion as in culture resistance to orthodoxy has persisted and for this reason this companion explores modernist heresies cultural aesthetic critical epistemological that stretch back to the late nineteenth century and forward to present day Contributors widen the temporal conceptual generic and geographical definitions of Irish modernism by investigating crosscurrents between literary form and cultural transformation through the twentieth and twenty first centuries The book enriches the canon of Irish modernism by recovering lesser known works by both neglected and canonical writers especially women poets and novelists Modernist Afterlives in Irish Literature and Culture Paige Reynolds,2016-09-22 Modernist Afterlives in Irish Literature and Culture explores manifestations of the themes forms and practices of high modernism in Irish literature and culture produced subsequent to this influential movement The interdisciplinary collection reveals how Irish artists grapple with modernist legacies and forge new modes of expression for modern and contemporary culture
