New Approaches to Transcodification Massimo Fusillo, Doriana Legge, Mirko Lino, Mattia Petricola, Gianluigi Rossini, 2025-08-04 This collection aims to renew our perspective on adaptation and intermedial processes by thinking of them in terms of codes rather than media As a result the notion of transcodification emerges as a crucial tool in order to study the circulation of semiotic and aesthetic resources across disciplines knowledge systems and cultures Defined as the transfer of meaning making potential from one semiotic domain to another transcodification both includes and transcends intermediality thus dramatically expanding the scope and research potential of adaptation and intermedial studies The essays collected here apply this framework to an incredibly wide variety of objects and issues from the relationship between art and historiography to the visual culture of finance from contemporary approaches to ekphrasis to the hidden labor of screenwriters from modern surveillance to digital comics from fansubbing to the reception of the classical world in the digital age from medieval theater to the role of videogames in the war on terror By fostering dialogue between radically different disciplines the book offers a unique approach to the study of semiotic interrelations across the most diverse aspects of human culture Contemporary Jewish-American Novelists Joel Shatzky, Michael Taub, 1997-07-16 Since World War II Jewish American novelists have significantly contributed to the world of literature This reference book includes alphabetically arranged entries for more than 75 Jewish American novelists whose major works were largely written after World War II Included are entries for both well known and relatively obscure novelists many of whom are just becoming established as significant literary figures While the volume profiles major canonical figures such as Saul Bellow Norman Mailer and Bernard Malamud it also aims to be more inclusive than other works on contemporary Jewish American writers Thus there are entries for gay and lesbian novelists such as Lev Raphael and Judith Katz whose works challenge the more orthodox definition of Jewish religious and cultural traditions Art Spiegelman whose controversial Maus R established a new genre by combining elements of the comic book and the conventional novel and newcomers such as Steve Stern and Max Apple who have become more prominent within the last decade Each entry includes a brief biography a discussion of major works and themes an overview of the novelist's critical reception and a bibliography of primary and secondary sources A thoughtful introduction
