The Art Of Natural Family Planning:

The Art of Natural Family Planning John F. Kippley, 1979 The Art of Natural Family Planning John Kippley, 1991 The Art of Natural Family Planning Premenopause Student Guide Couple to Couple League, 2009 Natural Family Planning NFP is fertility awareness the knowledge of a couple's fertility. It is a means of reading the body's signs of fertility and infertility. Applying this knowledge through the Sympto Thermal Method (STM) is over 99% effective in postponing a pregnancy and can be very helpful when trying to achieve one. Many NFP couples find, however, that the transition time during the years leading up to menopause presents unique challenges as the woman's body adjusts hormonally to the natural ending of her fertile years. With The Art of Natural Family Planning Premenopause Student Guide you will recognize the hormonal changes during the transition from premenopause through perimenopause to menopause. Know the effects of this transition on fertility. Learn how to apply NFP during the perimenopause transition. Understand how to help maintain good health during this time. Sex and the Marriage Covenant John F. Kippley, 2005 The thesis of this book is that God intends that sexual intercourse should be at least implicitly a renewal of the marriage covenant. From this it follows that the marriage covenant provides the criterion to evaluate the morality of every sexual act. Thus the title Sex and the Marriage Covenant is an appropriate description of the book's contents. Marriage comes into being by a couple unreservedly entering God's covenant of marriage. Contraceptive intercourse contradicts the very essence of the marriage covenant. From these considerations Kippley developed the covenant theology of sexuality described in this book. Natural Family Planning: The Complete Approach John and Sheila Kippley, 2009-03-11 The right and healthy way to achieve or postpone pregnancy. Cover Catholic Theology of Marriage in the Era of HIV and AIDS Emily Reimer-Barry, 2015-04-09 Marriage for Life begins by listening to the lived experiences of Catholic married HIV positive women in order to better understand their struggles. The eight women interviewed in Chicago, Illinois, USA, shared their stories of marriage, family life, church involvement, and of living with HIV. Their candid reflections offer a fresh and grounded perspective on the challenges of living with HIV in a US context. After listening to and learning from these women's experiences, Reimer Barry constructs a theology of Christian marriage that is life-giving in a world with AIDS. While Catholic teachings have developed and now affirm the equal dignity of women and men, troubling legacies of women's subordination remain embedded in liturgical practices and theological texts. Arguing that self-care is an indispensable component of a healthy marriage, Reimer Barry constructs a life-affirming theology of marriage that is sensitive to the struggles of her collaborators. She argues that marriage for life must promote the full flourishing of both partners, respect wives as equal partners with their husbands, and offer a coherent and empowering sexual ethic. Building on the wisdom of her collaborators' lived experiences, Reimer Barry examines the need for a more adequate Catholic response to HIV and AIDS, arguing that church communities should promote comprehensive sexual education, affirm both abstinence and condom use for HIV prevention, and actively work to reduce stigmatizing behaviors within church.

communities She also unpacks the implications of marriage for life for Catholic liturgical practice marriage preparation programs sexual education programs and family ministries Modeling her method on what Pope Francis calls the art of accompaniment Reimer Barry argues that Catholic theology of marriage must be renewed and updated so that all can plainly understand that marriage is for life
