The Bathing Huts:

Entangled Histories in Palestine/Israel Dafna Hirsch, 2024-04-16 This edited volume offers a new critical approach to the study of Zionist history and Israeli Palestinian relations based on the encounter between history and anthropology. Informed by the anthropological method of setting large questions to intimate settings, the book examines processes of Zionist colonization, nation building, and Palestinian dispossession by focusing on encounters between members of different national, religious, and ethnic groups from below, through paying close attention to life stories and reconstructing everyday practices and micro histories of places and communities. Thus, it tells a complex story in which the practices of historical actors are not simply reducible to a single underlying logic of colonization, even as they participate in the production and reproduction of colonial structures. This approach effectively undermines the prevailing tendency to study national communities in isolation, projecting onto the past an essentialist and rigid separation. Rather than assuming two clearly bounded and monolithic national groups caught from the start in perpetual conflict, this volume probes their historical production through their evolving relationships and their varied and shifting political, social, economic, and cultural manifestations. The book will be of interest to students and researchers in an array of fields, including the history of Israeli-Palestinian relations, anthropological perspectives on settler colonialism, and Zionism. The Long Night of the Demon, Bronislava Nijinska--early Memoirs Bronislava Nijinska, 1992 Now in paperback. Bronislava Nijinska's Early Memoirs, originally published in 1981, has been hailed by critics, scholars, and dancers alike as the definitive source of firsthand information on the early life of the great Vaslav Nijinsky (1889-1950). This memoir, recounted here with verve and stunning detail by the late Bronislava Nijinska (1891-1972), Nijinsky's sister and herself a major twentieth-century dancer and leading choreographer of the Diaghilev era, offers a season-by-season chronicle of their childhood and early artistic development. Written with feeling and charm, these insightful memoirs provide an engrossingly readable narrative that has the panoramic sweep and colorful vitality of a Russian novel. Secret Southport Jack Smith, 2017-07-15 Explore Southport's secret history through a fascinating selection of stories, facts, and photographs. The Bathing Huts Monique Lange, 1986 Russia Johann Georg Kohl, 1844 The British Seaside John K.
