The As World:

Polish Literature as World Literature Piotr Florczyk, K. A. Wisniewski, 2022-12-15 This carefully curated collection consists of 16 chapters by leading Polish and world literature scholars from the United States Canada Italy and of course Poland An historical approach gives readers a panoramic view of Polish authors and their explicit or implicit contributions to world literature Indeed the volume shows how Polish authors from Jan Kochanowski in the 16th century to the 2018 Nobel laureate Olga Tokarczuk have engaged with their foreign counterparts and other traditions active participants in the global literary network and the conversations of their day The volume features views of Polish literature and culture within theories of world literature and literary systems with a particular attention paid to the resurgence of the idea of the physical book as a cultural artifact This perspective is especially important since so much of today's global literary output stems from Anglophone perceptions of what constitutes literary quality and tastes The collection also sheds light on specific issues pertaining to Poland such as the idea of Polishness and global phenomena including social and economic advancement as well as ecological degradation Some of the authors discussed like the Romantic poet Adam Mickiewicz or the 1980 Nobel laureate Czeslaw Milosz were renowned far beyond the borders of their country while others like the contemporary travel writer and novelist Andrzej Stasiuk embrace regionalism seeing as they do in their immediate surroundings a synecdoche of the world at large Nevertheless the picture of Polish literature and Polish authors that emerges from these articles is that of a diverse cosmopolitan cohort engaged in a mutually rewarding relationship with what the late French critic Pascale Casanova has called the world republic of letters

Film as World Literature Robin Truth Goodman, 2025-10-16 Redefines the theoretical and thematic contents of world literature by considering it in connection with film What gets lost when we understand film as essentially different from literature What gets lost when we think them essentially the same Does the constructed difference between literature and film also create social and political exclusions exclusions that may exacerbate class struggle or exclusions of certain ways of thinking the future as different Film as World Literature seeks to undo disciplines and disciplinarity the division between film and literature indeed conceals the possibilities of world by bracketing out undisciplined parts Contributors apply ideas of translatability and untranslatability not just as a linguistic exercise of transfers between language groups cultures and national origins but also as an approach to media and transfers between media Is film a visual acknowledgement that literary language is by definition multilingual that is is film a place where political conflicts as Bakhtin observed can be rendered visible Chapters discuss film's relation to world literature not only by considering literary adaptations across nations regions languages ideologies and contexts but also by exploring film's intersections with literary theory narrative history genre and experimentation Film as World Literature calls for recognition that while the category of world demands a radical defense in the face of risks to democracy the world that literature and film combined bring forth must interrogate the conditions for a future politics of interaction engagement belonging and
