Ensor, 2013-10 Angus Robertson and the British Trade in Australian Books 1930-1970 traces the history of the printed book in Australia particularly the production and business context that mediated Australia s literary and cultural ties to Britain for much of the twentieth century This study focuses on the London operations of one of Australia s premier book publishers of the twentieth century Angus Robertson The book argues that despite the obvious limitations of a British dominated market Australian publishers had room to manoeuvre in it It questions the ways in which Angus Robertson replicated challenged or transformed the often highly criticised commercial practices of British publishers in order to develop an export trade for Australian books in the United Kingdom This book is the answer to the current void in the literary market for a substantial history of Australia s largest publisher and its role in the development of Australia s export book trade The Australian Edition of the Selected Works of Marcus Clarke, Together with a Biography and Monograph of the Deceased Author Marcus Andrew Hislop
