The Marshall Plan In Austria:

The Marshall plan in Austria - an analysis Gisela Spreitzhofer, 2006-01-12 Seminar paper from the year 2006 in the subject History of Germany Postwar Period Cold War grade A Johns Hopkins University SAIS Bologna Center language English abstract The Austrian Republic which had been unable to survive economically in the aftermath of World War I recovered surprisingly quickly from the serious economic consequences of World War II In fact it became one of the world's wealthiest nations within a few years only achieving extraordinarily high growth rates and per capita income increases on an international scale The Marshall Plan's historical role for Austria is a topic that has been rather neglected by historians for several decades By writing this paper I would like to make a contribution to the memory of the Marshall Plan which was the biggest reconstruction aid project ever Perhaps no country benefited more from it than Austria Between 1948 and 1952 the United States supported Austria with goods worth approximately one billion dollars which cost each American tax payer 80 dollars Each Austrian received 133 dollars from the Plan more than any other of the sixteen participating Western European countries Apart from its economic effect the Marshall Plan also transported the American way of life to Western Europe and Austria I would like to start this paper by giving an overview of how Austria's economic situation was like immediately after the end of World War II The following chapter discusses the birth of the Marshall Plan first on the Western then on the Eastern side of the Atlantic Then I will focus chronologically on the stages of Austria's participation in the Plan before its impact on Austrian post war identity building will be explained A conclusion will finish the paper

The Marshall Plan in Austria Gunter Bischof, Anton Pelinka, Dieter Stiefel, 2018-12-20 Perhaps no country benefitted more from the Marshall Plan for assistance in reconstruction of Europe after World War II than Austria On a per capita basis each American taxpayer invested 80 per person in the Plan each Austrian received 133 from the European recovery program more than any other of the sixteen participating countries Without the Marshall Plan the Austrian economic miracle of the 1950s would have been unthinkable Despite this contemporary Austria seems to have forgotten this essential American contribution to its postwar reconstruction This volume in the Contemporary Austrian Studies series examines how the plan affected Austria and how it is perceived today The political context of the Marshall Plan in Austria is addressed in essays by Jill Lewis and Matthew Berg Dieter Stiefer describes the vast Soviet economic exploitation of their Austrian occupation zone Andrea Komlosy shows how the Marshall Plan helped complete the division of Europe Siegfried Beer suggests the secret involvement of the CIA in the Marshall Plan while Hans J3rgen Schröder analyzes the effectiveness of Marshall Plan propaganda programs in Germany and Austria The macroeconomic impact of Marshall Plan funds on Austrian economic policy is outlined by Hans Seidel Kurt Tweraser Georg Rigele and G3nter Bischof suggest the microeconomic importance of funds for the steel electricity and tourist sectors of the Austrian economy Wilhelm Kohler's sweeping analysis compares the American transfer of funds to postwar Europe with current debates about the cost of European Union enlargement The legacy of the Marshall Plan is addressed by former Austrian Finance Minister Ferdinand Lacina Kurt Löffler and Hans Fubenegger summarize the activities of the Economic Recovery Program Fund Coming on the heels of the fiftieth anniversary of the Marshall Plan this compelling overview of the Plan and its impact will be important for historians those interested in international politics and Austrian scholars G3nter Bischof is professor of history and associate director of Center Austria at the University of New Orleans Anton Pelinka is professor of political science at the University of Innsbruck and director of the Institute of Conflict Research in Vienna Dieter Stiefel is professor of social and economic history at the University of Vienna and executive secretary of the Schumpeter Society in Vienna This volume offers a collection of articles mostly by contemporary Austrian born historians touching on various phases of the Marshall Plan administered through the European Recovery Program ERP and its successors counterfunds assistance to the present A splendid introduction followed by the key thirteen articles on the plan is augmented by several nontopical essays and book reviews along with a survey of Austrian politics in 1998 A number of articles emanated from a 1998 conference at the University of New Orleans Both novice and specialist will appreciate this book

The Marshall Plan Günter Bischof,Hans Petschar,2017 The Marshall Plan in Austria ANTON. PELINKA,2020-12-18 This volume in the Contemporary Austrian Studies series examines how the Marshall Plan affected Austria and how it is perceived today Fortieth Anniversary of the Marshall Plan for Austria ,1987 America Changes the Course of History Dietmar Hoscher,1988 Austrian Information ,2008 Information about the Marshall Plan and Its Channels Foreign Opinion and Market Research, New York,Eric Stern,1950* Austria and the Marshall Plan Gunter W. Schneck,1951 The Marshall Plan in Austria: a Study in American Containment of the Soviet Union in the Cold War. [Mit Kt.] - [Birmingham, Ala.] 1980. VII, 357 S. Patricia Blythe Eggleston,1980 The Economic Reconstruction of Austria, 1945-1952 Franz Heissenberger,1953 Images of the Marshall Plan in Europe Günter Bischof,Dieter Stiefel,2009 The Marshall Plan is considered the most successful foreign aid program in American history It played a crucial role in helping to rebuild Western Europe after World War II reintegrate West Germany into the West maintain American interest in Europe1 2s future contain communism and launch American consumer democracy and improving the standard of living in Europe It also finalized the progressing division of Europe into a democratic capitalist West and communist East This volume focuses on selling the Marshall Plan both to sceptical Americans and Europeans in the late 1940s and early 1950s The Economic Cooperation Administration in Paris administered the distribution of American Marshall Aid It also directed the propaganda effort 250 films were produced newsreels documentaries and feature films Travelling train exhibits were organized that were shown all over Europe and by ship on Greek islands and busses travelled to the remotest Austrian Alpine valleys to show films about how Marshall Plan aid increased Austrian economic productivity

The Marshall Plan Today John Agnew,J. Nicholas Entrikin,2004-06-24 This volume has as its focus the role of the Marshall Plan as both a force in the transformation of European Economic practices and a stimulus to political integration in Europe This organizing theme is framed in terms of two other issues that are central to contemporary debates in international political economy and geopolitical studies the origins and development of the Cold War and the growing globalisation of the world economy In relating the Marshall Plan to these issues this book goes beyond the typical diplomatic history approach to place the Plan in the context of both the political economy of late twentieth century Europe and the impact of American models of business and government that came with the Plan

The Soviet Union and the Occupation of Austria William Lloyd Stearman, 1961 Understanding Austria Martin Florian Herz, 1984 160 documents written by Herz during his service as a major in the U S Army in Vienna in 1945 and as Third later Second Secretary of the American Legation between January 1947 December 1948 He played an important role in political reporting focusing on Austrian party politics Includes scattered references to antisemitism and denazification proceedings Pp 112 123 contain comments on two press articles on the Jewish question the first by the mayor of Vienna denying that antisemitism was rife in the city and explaining delays in restitution of Aryanized property the second a general article in a research journal Notes that although antisemitism persisted it was not a serious political problem Popular resentment was aroused because of the better conditions and food given to Jewish DPs and because of their black market activities Austria's Contribution to the Marshall Plan at the End of the Third Economic Year Creditanstalt-Bankverein, 1951 The Austrian Economist , 1952 Military Government, Austria , 1947 The Economic Development of Austria Since 1870 Herbert Matis, 1994 This succinct volume of previously published articles and papers is aimed at those interested in particular problems of Austrian economic and social history It clearly emerges from the volume that much of Austria s economic history remains the subject of dispute and there is still much research work to be done The Economic Development of Austria since 1870 is intended to shed further light upon the interaction of economic social and political factors in Austria s development The volume begins with a comprehensive new introduction written by the editor and follows with important contributions on The Habsburg Monarchy 1870 1918 The Interwar Period 1918 1938 Austria after Anschluss 1938 1945 and Austria s Economy 1945 1990

Total Cold War Kenneth Alan Osgood, 2006 Osgood focuses on major campaigns such as Atoms for Peace People to People and cultural exchange programs Drawing on recently declassified documents that record U S psychological operations in some three dozen countries he tells how U S propaganda agencies presented everyday life in America to the world its citizens living full happy lives in a classless society where economic bounty was shared by all Osgood further investigates the ways in which superpower disarmament negotiations were used as propaganda maneuvers in the battle for international public opinion He also reexamines the early years of the space race focusing especially on the challenge to American propagandists posed by the Soviet launch of Sputnik
