Copyright Office, 1973 Publishers Directory, 1994 Books in Print, 1991 Masters of Tradition Margaret Rodman, Margaret Critchlow, 1987 Land copra and custom were the dominant themes in the colonial history of the New Hebrides they remain crucial concerns as the Republic of Vanuatu the name adopted at independence in 1980 is experiencing the transformation of its peasant society from small copra producers to participants in regional and world market economies Based on extensive fieldwork this book gives a detailed account of how the chain of copra works from the commodity markets of Europe to the native producers and back again Through the use of well constructed examples Rodman shows how small producers respond to changes in world prices which in turn are related to the emergence of economic differentials within Longana The islanders usually considered to be powerless in their dealings with the outside world do however see themselves as retaining and in fact do retain a measure of control over their economic activities in production and marketing as is demonstrated by Rodman The author describes how the flexibility of customary land tenure allows the system of land holding to change while appearing to remain the same Out of older kinds of inequality are emerging new kinds of inequality in cash income and in control of land land is being concentrated in a few hands while the subsequent social differentiation among the peasant copra producers is being obscured The way in which the penetration of capitalism has taken place in Vanuatu makes possible the persistence of an illusion that rich peasants are the same as traditional men of rank and influence While this is certainly an illusion it is also a real way of coping with change and slowing the impact of capitalism in a local economy with a different kind of logic Papers Read Before the Juridical Society Juridical Society (Great Britain), 1863 Selections from Wodrow's Biographical Collections Robert Wodrow, 1890 The Legal Doctrine of Responsibility in Cases of Insanity, Connected with Alleged Criminal Acts Lyttleton Forbes Winslow, 1863 Ideology and the Ideologists Howard Rosenthal, 2017-07-05 The revival of ideology which began early in the second half of the last century has led to reconsideration of the following questions What underlies the pattern of the rise and decline of the ideological mode of thought What leads young intellectuals to search for an ideology What accounts for the changes in ideological fashion over time and nation and shifts from one set of philosophical tenets to another Who indeed are the intellectuals Studies of ideology have tended to range themselves for or against particular viewpoints or have concerned themselves with defining perspectives The purpose of this book is to examine the common causal patterns in the development of various differing ideologies Feuer finds that any ideology may be said to be composed of three ingredients The most basic and invariant is some form of Mosaic myth Every ideology also has its characteristic philosophical tenets spreading from left to right which conform to the cycle of ideas and finally an ideology must be taken up by some section of the population who can translate it into action Intellectuals in generational revolt find in some version of the ideological myth a charter and dramatization of their emotions aims and actions Since each generation of intellectuals tends to reject its predecessors doctrines a law of intellectual fashion arises the alternation of philosophical doctrines Ideology has inevitably made for an authoritarian presumption on the part of master intellectuals and marginal ones and assumes their antagonism to objective truth and science It is Feuer's contention that only when intellectuals abandon ideology in favor of science or scholarship will an unfortunate chapter in the history of human unreason be overcome
