The Massie Case:

The Massie Case Peter Packer, 1966 New Faces in a Changing America Loretta I. Winters, Herman L. DeBose, 2003

New Faces in a Changing America is a comprehensive penetrating authoritative and provocative examination of what it means to be multiracial in this country With contributions by the leading thinkers activists and researchers on the subject it admirably links theory and the powerful lived experiences of mixed race people This book will be the most important reference source on the subject for many years James P Allen California State University Northridge Not since the work of Root has there been as important of an anthology as New Faces in a Changing America This book explores the reality of multiracial people from a variety of theoretical and conceptual perspectives It is a must read for anybody who want to understand the multiracial movement and the multiracial people who lead that movement Any teacher who wants to introduce the concept of multiraciality to his her class must also have this book Winters and Debose are to be commended for putting together this first rate academic examination of an important social phenomenon George Yancey University of North Texas How multiracial people identify themselves can have major consequences on their positions in their families communities and society Even the U S Census has recognized the rapidly increasing numbers of those who consider themselves multiracial adding a new racial category to the 2000 Census form two or more races New Faces in a Changing America Multiracial Identity in the 21st Century examines the multiracial experience its history and the political issues and consequences surrounding biracial and multiracial identity bringing together top names in the field to give readers cutting edge views and insights gained from contemporary research This important new text follows the trail blazed by Maria Root who contributes its opening chapter An introduction places the issues of multiracial identity into context via a discussion of U S Census data and debates providing an overview of the varied readings to come covering such topics as Race as a social rather than biological construction The Multiracial Movement Racial Ethnic Groups in America and Beyond Race Gender human service professionals including psychologists counselors social workers and school personnel and importantly multiracial individuals themselves

The Massie Case Peter PACKER (and THOMAS (Robert Joseph)), Thalia MASSIE, Robert Joseph THOMAS, 1966 Crimes of the Centuries Steven Chermak Ph.D., Frankie Y. Bailey, 2016-01-25 This multivolume resource is the most extensive reference of its kind offering a comprehensive summary of the misdeeds perpetrators and victims involved in the most memorable crime events in American history This unique reference features the most famous crimes and trials in the United States since colonial times Three comprehensive volumes focus on the most notorious and historically significant crimes that have influenced America s justice system including the life and wrongdoing of Lizzie Borden the bombing of the Sixteenth Street Baptist Church the killing spree and execution of Ted Bundy and the Columbine High School shootings Organized by case the work includes a chronology of major unlawful deeds fascinating primary source documents dozens of sidebars with case trivia and little known facts and an overview of crimes that have shaped criminal justice in the United States over several centuries Each of the 500 entries provides information about the crime the perpetrators and those affected by the misconduct along with a short bibliography to extend learning opportunities The set addresses a breadth of famous trials across American history including the Salem witch trials the conviction of Sacco and Vanzetti and the prosecution of O J Simpson Modern History of Hawaii Skills Book Ann Rayson,2004-08 The Massie Case. (The Most Notorious Rape Case of the Century.). Peter Packer,Bob Thomas,1966 A History of Hawaii, Student Book Linda K. Menton,Eileen Tamura,1999 A comprehensive and readable account of the history of Hawai i presented in three chronological units Unit 1 Pre contact to 1900 Unit 2 1900 1945 Unit 3 1945 to the present Each unit contains chapters treating political economic social and land history in the context of events in the United States and the Pacific Region The student book features primary documents political cartoons stories and poems graphs a glossary maps and timelines The activities writing assignments oral presentations and simulations foster critical thinking The Federal Cases, 1895 The Massie Case Honolulu TimeWalks Company,1996 No Sword To Bury Franklin Odo,2008-11-20 When bombs rained down on Pearl Harbor in 1941 Japanese American college students were among the many young men enrolled in ROTC and immediately called upon to defend the Hawaiian islands against invasion In a few weeks however the military government questioned their loyalty and disarmed them In No Sword to Bury Franklin Odo places the largely untold story of the wartime experience of these young men in the context of the community created by their immigrant families and its relationship to the larger white dominated society At the heart of the book are vivid oral histories that recall their service on the home front in the Varsity Victory Volunteers a non military group dedicated to public works as well as in the segregated 442nd Regimental Combat Team Illuminating a critical moment in ethnic identity formation among this first generation of Americans of Japanese descent the nisei Odo shows how the war time service and the post war success of these men contributed to the simplistic view of Japanese Americans as a model minority in Hawai i Local Story John P. Rosa,2014-08-31 The Massie Kahahawai case of 1931 1932 shook the Territory of Hawai i to its very core Thalia Massie a young Navy wife alleged that she had been kidnapped and raped by some Hawaiian boys in Waik k A few days later five young men stood accused of her rape Mishandling of evidence and contradictory testimony led to a mistrial but before a second trial could be convened one of the accused Horace Ida was kidnapped and beaten by a group of Navy men and a second Joseph Kahahawai lay dead from a gunshot wound Thalia s husband Thomas Massie her mother Grace Fortescue and two Navy men were convicted of the lesser charge of manslaughter despite witnesses who saw them kidnap Kahahawai and the later discovery of his body in Massie s car Under pressure from Congress and the Navy territorial governor Lawrence McCully Judd commuted their sentences After spending only an hour in the governor s office at Iolani Palace the four were set free Local Story is a close examination of how Native Hawaiians Asian immigrants and others responded to challenges posed by the military and federal government during the case s investigation and aftermath In addition to providing a concise account of events as they unfolded the book shows how this historical narrative has been told and retold in later decades to affirm a local identity among descendants of working class Native Hawaiians Asians and others in fact this understanding of the term local in the islands dates from the Massie Kahahawai case It looks at the racial and sexual tensions in pre World War II Hawai i that kept local men and white women apart and at the uneasy relationship between federal and military officials and territorial administrators Lastly it examines the revival of interest in the case in the last few decades true crime accounts a fictionalized TV mini series and most recently a play and a documentary all spurring the formation of new collective memories about the Massie Kahahawai case
