Teaching Foreign Language Skills:

Teaching Foreign-language Skills Wilga M. Rivers, 1968 English Language Skills Training. Theory and Practice Eddie Fisher, Jorge Luis Herrera Ochoa, Yoennis Diaz Moreno, 2014-01-13 Research Paper postgraduate from the year 2013 in the subject English Language and Literature Studies Linguistics grade N A Universidad de Oriente in Santiago de Cuba Faculty of Humanities course English Language language English abstract The ability to teach foreign languages effectively has become an increasingly important skill to develop and improve the language proficiency of students Teachers need to develop and apply proactive and positive attitudes to foster new levels of foreign language learning within their students Teaching on its own is not a panacea for success This paper investigates how teachers at the Universidad de Oriente UO in Santiago de Cuba search for and apply innovative ways of teaching foreign languages to their students within current boundaries The results from this research show that there is a positive relationship between the level of proficiency in a foreign language and the methods and approaches teachers apply to keep students motivated and interested in the subject matter The literature review from this study provided supportive evidence which was strengthened with insights from face to face interviews and a focus group meeting The outcomes confirmed that students who are exposed regularly to practical and diverse teaching methods are more likely to exceed the expected foreign language proficiency levels set by the University's quality standards Living Languages: An Integrated Approach to Teaching Foreign Languages in Secondary Schools Catherine Watts, Clare Forder, 2013-06-17 Living Languages comprises eight chapters and is structured around the integrated classroom merging language learning with different aspects of the wider curriculum such as multimedia theatre and music celebrations and festivals sport and alternative approaches to teaching languages A DVD is also included with the book containing additional teaching materials and the associated films and audio recordings which make this a fully developed and effective teaching resource Interactive Language Teaching Wilga M. Rivers, 1987-02-27 Teachers and writers describe the approaches and techniques they have incorporated into their own teaching The paperback edition is designed to help classroom teachers make language classes more participatory and communication oriented A distinguished group of innovative teachers and writers describe in a collection of essays the approaches and techniques they have incorporated into their own teaching Learning to Teach Foreign Languages in the Secondary School Norbert Pachler, Michael Evans, Ana Redondo, Linda Fisher, 2013-12-17 Praise for previous editions A wealth of theory research practical advice case studies and tasks in one volume Indispensable for both HEI tutors and mentors and an important book to recommend to all MFL students Language Learning Journal Presenting clear straightforward factual information on all current issues facing MFL student teachers An excellent reference guide during the first years of teaching Mentoring and Tutoring Learning to Teach Foreign Languages in the Secondary School has established itself as the leading textbook for student teachers of foreign languages in the UK and internationally The practical focus is underpinned by a theoretical perspective and backed up by the latest research encouraging you to develop a personal approach to foreign language teaching This new fourth edition has been comprehensively updated to take account of recent policy and curriculum changes and now covers a range of relevant statutory frameworks Fully revised chapters cover the key knowledge and skills essential for becoming a foreign language teacher What can we learn from research into language teaching and learning Teaching methods and learning strategies Creating a meaningful learning environment Transition from Primary to Secondary The role of digital technologies Teaching in the target language Receptive skills and productive skills Teaching and learning grammar Planning and reflecting on classroom practice Pupil differences and differentiation Assessment for and of learning It includes many examples of how to analyse practice to ensure pupil learning is maximised together with activities and tasks to support you as you analyse your own learning and performance Learning to Teach Foreign Languages in the Secondary School provides practical help and support for many of the situations and potential challenges you are faced with in school It is an essential purchase for every aspiring secondary foreign languages school teacher Teaching Foreign-language Skills Wilga M.
