Teaching Like The Master Getting Beyond Techniques:

Teaching Like the Master D. Cecil Clark, 1994-01-01 Beyond Training: The Rise of Adult Education in the Military Jeffrey Zacharakis, Cheryl Polson, 2012-12-17 Widen your view of adult education by learning how it is applied by the nation's largest adult education provider the military. Woven through this issue is the common thread of sound adult education practice. Addressing applications specific to the military but relevant to civilian providers it highlights the importance of developing the critical thinking and problem solving skills essential for military leaders in an increasingly complex world. Chapters also address the intersection of higher education and particular military populations including civilian employees, active duty personnel, veterans and spouses. Finally the sourcebook provides a glimpse into the future of both military education and adult education highlighting the increasing bond between the two and their growing importance in the lifelong education of all Americans. This is the 136th volume of the Jossey Bass quarterly report series New Directions for Adult and Continuing Education. Noted for its depth of coverage it explores issues of common interest to instructors, administrators, counselors and policymakers in a broad range of settings such as colleges and universities, extension programs, businesses, libraries and museums.

The Craft of Church Planting Christian Selvaratnam, 2022-06-30 Drawing on insights from the training practices of the English medieval craft guilds a global survey of 500 church planters, interviews with artists and church planting trainers and the authors 30 years of ministry experience. The Craft of Church Planting offers a distinctive and imaginative perspective on the methods used to train future practitioners in the art of church planting. Demonstrating how training for the next generation of church planting leaders might be informed by the historic master apprentice model, guild learning communities, creativity and an artisan approach to ministry this book is a vital resource to inform the methods of training for the next generation of church planters.

The Development and Education of the Mind Howard Gardner, 2006-06-28 Leading American psychologist and educator Howard Gardner has assembled his most important writings about education. Spanning over thirty years this collection reveals the thinking, the concepts and the empirical research that have made Gardner one of the most respected and cited educational authorities of our time. Trained originally as a psychologist at Harvard University, Howard Gardner begins with personal sketches and tributes to his major teachers and mentors. He then presents the work for which he is best known the theory of multiple intelligences including a summary of the original theory and accounts of how it has been updated over the years. Other seminal papers featured include education in the arts, the nature of understanding, powerful ways in which to assess learning, broad statements about the educational enterprise, how education is likely to evolve in the globalised world of the twenty first century.
