Teaching Mainstreamed Students:

Language Minority Students in the Mainstream Classroom Angela Carrasquillo, Vivian Rodríguez, 2002 This is the second edition of an easily readable text that provides first hand information on culturally and linguistically diverse students as well as instructional strategies in the content areas of reading writing science social studies and maths using simple and direct language The second edition includes updated information on current educational programs and local and national standards for English language learners in United States The book will be of interest to researchers professionals under and postgraduate students interested in the teaching of ethnic minorities Resources in Education, 1984

Mainstream or Special? Josephine Jenkinson, 2012-10-02 There remains some controversy about how best to meet the needs of pupils with special educational needs Should they be educated in mainstream schools alongside their peers or does this mean that specialist help and resources are denied to them This book explores in depth the ways in which this problem has been tackled in Australia the UK and Canada It looks at the major issues which have been raised and the types of provisions and resourcing which have been offered and then goes on to provide a vision of how future education provision might look for pupils with special educational needs Inclusive Education at Work Students with Disabilities in Mainstream Schools

OECD, 2000-02-02 Based on in depth analysis of inclusive practice in eight countries this book addresses the issues that arise when students with disabilities are educated in local schools Encyclopedia of School Psychology T. Stuart

Watson, Christopher H. Skinner, 2004-08-03 One volume reference work with approximately 250 entries organized alphabetically for ease of use and of locating subject matter Each entry will contain 5-8 references as well as a bibliography of references and suggested readings An authoritative reference text on school psychology that would appeal to and be understood by a broad audience Will assist individuals in acquiring a general understanding of some of the theories practices and language associated with the field of school psychology

Educating All Students in the Mainstream of Regular Education Susan Bray Stainback, William C. Stainback, Marsha Forest, 1989 This book builds from a historical overview of educational integration and explores the rationale behind the movement toward a merger of regular and special education

Noted authorities advance this argument in well structured chapters organized around key themes including educational equality in practice strategies to promote merger educational practices to meet diverse student needs and family and community support Case histories and boxed statements highlighting pertinent points are among the effective instructional aides in this textbook A thought provoking question and answer format also confronts 22 of the most commonly addressed concerns about merging regular and special education Teaching Handicapped Students Social Studies Terry Shaw, 1981

Written by teachers the manual contains nine chapters designed to help regular and special education teachers teach social studies to handicapped students in the mainstreamed setting Chapters have the following titles and authors Social Studies in the Mainstreamed Classroom K 6 A Ochoa S Shuster My Place in Space Painting Maps on Classroom Floors L Dunne O
