Cooper, Richard J. Klimoski, 2007. A work exposing and exploring the phenomena of the dysfunctional workplace is long overdue. This fascinating book does just that, uncovering the subversiveness, counter productive behaviour and unspoken issues that managers struggle with on a daily basis. This Companion not only explores organizational dysfunction as it concerns individuals, it also examines broader issues of dysfunction and its effects with regards to teams, managers and organizational systems. Lively discussion encompasses the symptoms of distress, illness, absenteeism and inefficiency that point towards behavioural disorders and system wide malfunction. From personality disorders to wars over territory, the book chronicles and reveals the true nature of often hidden workplace problems including bullying, unethical behaviour, loss of trust, organizational deviance, cowardice, workaholism, negative humour and emotions, personality disorders, mismanagement and malfunctioning performance and selection systems. So what can be done? Practical solutions to these dysfunctional phenomena are presented by international experts from a range of disciplinary backgrounds including management, psychology and economics. This fascinating, highly original book will be of enormous interest to students, researchers, academics and practitioners across all sectors of business and management, human resource management in particular. Team Development Workbook International Labour Organization, Human Resources Development Department, 2005. The workbook objectives are to a) practice new skills and increase the confidence of team members to improve key aspects of their teamwork, b) provide focused development activities based on the team's needs that were identified by the Team Characteristics Assessment Questionnaire, c) help the team reflect on their current level of effectiveness and begin to take action on improving team performance and human relationships, and d) encourage teams to take responsibility for improving their effectiveness through the use of self-directed workplace learning activities.
