Reading for Pleasure, 2011 Introductory Text-book to School Education, Method, and School Management

John Gill, 1880 Children Reading for Pleasure in the Digital Age Natalia Kucirkova, Teresa Cremin, 2020

What does it mean to become a reader? What are the challenges and opportunities of engaging children in reading for pleasure in the 21st century? This book explores the ways in which reading for pleasure is changing in the era of globalisation, multiculturalism and datafication. Raising the next generation of engaged readers requires knowledge of the enduring characteristics of engagement and markers of quality in books and e-books. In addition, in order to develop new insights into children's experience of reading on and off screen, nuanced understandings of psychological and socio-cultural research are offered. The cross-disciplinary examination integrates key research from educational psychology, new literacies, multimodality and socio-cultural perspectives and explores consequences for practice. An authoritative guide, it invites graduates, researchers and teachers to participate in the authors' interdisciplinary dialogue about reading for pleasure.

Building Communities of Engaged Readers Teresa Cremin, Marilyn Mottram, Fiona M. Collins, Sacha Powell, Kimberly

Safford, 2014-06-20. Reading for pleasure urgently requires a higher profile to raise attainment and increase children's engagement as self-motivated and socially interactive readers. Building Communities of Engaged Readers highlights the concept of Reading Teachers who are not only knowledgeable about texts for children but are aware of their own reading identities and prepared to share their enthusiasm and understanding of what being a reader means. Sharing the processes of reading with young readers is an innovative approach to developing new generations of readers. Examining the interplay between the will and the skill to read the book, distinctively details a reading for pleasure pedagogy and demonstrates that reader engagement is strongly influenced by relationships between children, teachers, families and communities. Importantly, it provides compelling evidence that reciprocal reading communities in school encompass a shared concept of what it means to be a reader in the 21st century. Considerable teacher and child knowledge of children's literature and other texts, pedagogic practices which acknowledge and develop diverse reader identities, spontaneous inside text talk on the part of all members, a shift in the focus of control and new social spaces that encourage choice and children's rights as readers. Written by experts in the literacy field and illustrated throughout with examples from the project schools, it is essential reading for all.
