sleepers if an enemy's head appeared in the darkness Hal and Chester of course left the American trenches with full knowledge of these sentinels otherwise they might have been shot Once beyond the protecting walls of earth they moved swiftly and silently toward the German trenches less than a hundred feet away just the distance from the home plate to first base on a baseball diamond as Hal put it ninety feet These two lads who now advanced directly toward the foe were lieutenants in the first American expeditionary force to reach France to lend a hand in driving back the legions of the German Emperor who still clung tenaciously to territory he had conquered in the early stages of the great war These boys had at one time been captains in the British army and had had three years of strenuous times and exciting adventures in the greatest of all wars Their captaincies they'd won through gallant action upon the field of battle American lads they had been left in Berlin at the outbreak of hostilities when they were separated from Hal's mother They made their way to Belgium where for a time they saw service with King Albert's troops Later they fought under the tricolor with the Russians and the British and Canadians When the United States declared war on Germany Hal and Chester with others were sent to America where they were of great assistance in training men Uncle Sam had selected to officer his troops They had relinquished their rank in the British army to be able to do this Now they found themselves again on French soil but fighting under the Stars and Stripes On this particular night they advanced toward the German lines soon after an audience with General John J Pershing commander in chief of the American expeditionary forces In one hand Chester carried a little hardwood box to which were attached coils of wire In the other hand the lad held a revolver Hal likewise carried his automatic in his hand Each was determined to give a good account of himself should his presence be discovered It was unusually quiet along the front this night It was too dark for opposing snipers sharpshooters to get in their work and the voices of the big guns which almost incessantly for the last few weeks had hurled shells across the intervening distance between the two lines of trenches were stilled

The Boy Allies with Haig in Flanders - The Fighting Canadians of Vimy Ridge Clair W. Hayes, 2014-11-11 Hal thanked the captain and made his way home alone As he moved up the steps he was startled to see a shadowy figure lurking in the doorway His hand dropped to his pocket and he advanced cautiously Don't be afraid Take your hand away from that revolver came the voice of Gladys Schweiring Miss Gladys exclaimed Hal in surprise What are you doing here It is almost midnight I was waiting for you was the low response I was afraid something might have happened It has replied Hal but it is good news and not bad Where is your mother In the drawing room Are the others there Just your friends The guests have gone and father has retired Good I have important information for them Hal followed the young girl into the drawing room Chester rose to his feet By George I'm glad to see you back safely he said I was afraid something had happened Others echoed his words Folks said Hal I've news for you good news What is it demanded Chester eagerly Well said Hal very quietly I've seen the list
