

The Blue Dahlia

Ian Pickup

The Blue Dahlia:

The Blue Dahlia Raymond Chandler, 1976 A previously unpublished work by Raymond Chandler Raymond Chandler's screenplay for The Blue Dahlia is a valuable addition to the published canon for the writer who has been called the Shakespeare of hard boiled fiction Converted from a never completed novel this screenplay is all that survives of the novel Chandler worked on between The Lady in the Lake and The Little Sister In 1944 Paramount Pictures where Chandler was under contract needed a rush script for Alan Ladd Chandler agreed to cannibalize his novel in progress but as detailed in producer John Houseman's memoir he became stuck and decided that he could only complete his screenplay drunk The Blue Dahlia was completed on schedule and was well received earning Chandler his second Academy Award nomination Although the writer's screenplay is metamorphosed by other hands in the movie making process the screenplay as written has an independent existence and may be read and judged as a literary work Indeed the movie studio archives are a valuable literary resource and it is inevitable that many screenplays will be published as the study of movies expands The Blue Dahlia is the story of a war hero who is suspected of having murdered his unfaithful wife Although it does not involve a private eye the work utilizes familiar elements of Chandler's world the loner hero the quest for justice the sense of a corrupt society and above all the theme of personal honor
