foundational and emerging research in family communication make this an invaluable resource that explores the critical

topics and issues facing family communication researchers today

Marriage and Family Kathleen Gilbert, 2001 A collection of public press articles that offer varied perspectives on the family Issues covered include exploring and establishing relationships maintaining relationships the challenges and opportunities of crises and maintaining healthy relationships in families

Marriages and Families Karen Seccombe, Rebecca L. Warner, 2004 In this fresh more structural alternative to other texts for the marriage and family course Seccombe and Warner provide a comprehensive look at close relationships and the family in just 15 chapters Examining close relationships and families by placing them in social context the authors offer a unique emphasis on the structural and relational aspects of the family with a focus on family resilience

The text weaves together a macro view social structural analysis of close relationships with the macro an individualist view

The authors demonstrate the interaction of theory and methodology in family studies in Chapter 2 and blend cutting edge research and practical applications throughout Among the highlights of this first edition are the exceptionally thorough exploration of the topics of singlehood and cohabitation in Chapter 7 and the unique six chapter core 8 13 that focuses on all aspects of parenthood and the challenges and crises that families face today The authors emphasis on family resilience and how families can be strengthened is reflected in the Constructing Strong Families boxes that appear throughout the text

These features encourage students to apply groundbreaking research on what makes a family strong to their own families and in the concluding chapter Looking Ahead Helping Families Flourish which examines the factors that successful families regardless of ethnicity culture or social class consistently exhibit

Family Assessment Manfred Cierpka, Douglas H.

Sprenkle, Volker Thomas, 2005 The second part presents the various clinical perspectives that underlie the three level model

These perspectives include the family's contextual factors such as its stage in the family life cycle its social world and related areas such as parenting styles and behavior Finally the third part presents some clinical applications focusing on the use of family sculpting procedures as assessment tools Jacket Family Love Alfred H. Ells,1995 Many family members have hurtful ways of relating to one another This book offers seven specific steps to help readers free themselves from painful legacies and create more loving patterns of connecting with one another Marriage and family counselor Ells pioneered this unique approach to family relationships which gives readers the tools they need to find healing and love in their families
