The Making Of Kew:

Palace of Palms Kate Teltscher, 2020-07-09 A glorious green adventure story Ann Treneman The Times Books of the Year The most enthralling historical book I've read this year Claire Tomalin New Statesman Books of the year Daringly innovative when it opened in 1848 the Palm House in Kew Gardens remains one of the most beautiful glass buildings in the world today Seemingly weightless vast and yet light the Palm House floats free from architectural convention at once monumental and ethereal From a distance the crowns of the palms within are silhouetted in the central dome close to banana leaves thrust themselves against the glass To enter it is to enter a tropical fantasy The body is assaulted by heat light and the smell of damp vegetation In Palace of Palms Kate Teltscher tells the extraordinary story of its creation and of the Victorians' obsession with the palms that filled it It is a story of breathtaking ambition of scientific discovery and crucially of the remarkable men whose vision it was The Palm House was commissioned by the charismatic first Director of Kew Sir William Hooker designed by the audacious Irish engineer Richard Turner and managed by Kew's forthright curator John Smith who battled with boilers and floods to ensure the survival of the rare and wondrous plants it housed The Making of Kew Madeleine Bingham (Baroness Clanmorris.), 1975-01-01 Empireworld Sathnam Sanghera, 2024-01-25 THE INSTANT SUNDAY TIMES BESTSELLER In his ground breaking new book Sathnam Sanghera traces the legacies of British empire around the world A wonderful book Rory Stewart Nuanced and deeply researched Financial Times Not just a welcome corrective but a book for our times Peter Frankopan _____ The British empire was built on slavery but it also pioneered abolition It spread democracy but it also seeded geopolitical instability It devastated nature but it also gave birth to modern notions of environmentalism In this urgent sequel to Empireland award winning author and journalist Sathnam Sanghera extends his examination of British imperial legacies beyond Britain to the wider world Travelling across outposts of the former empire from Barbados and Mauritius to India and Nigeria and beyond Sanghera puts to bed the conventional balance sheet view of imperial history where the good is merely weighed up against the bad In Empireworld Sanghera instead seeks out nuance to reveal how contradictory forces of the British empire have shaped our world and what they mean for our place within it today _____ An absolute masterpiece James O'Brien Puts Sanghera in the firmament of great imperial historians Yasmin Alibhai Brown i Profoundly moving Elizabeth Day Sir Francis Ronalds: Father Of The Electric Telegraph Beverley Frances Ronalds, 2016-07-28 Telecommunication has undergone unprecedented change in recent times Two hundred years ago Sir Francis Ronalds foresaw its development and imagined a world of electrical conversations His subsequent creations the most important of which include an early version of the telegraph have had significant impact on modern living Little recognized until now his extraordinary legacy is brought to life through never before published sources written by people close to the man himself In this book details of Sir Francis's inventions covering areas as diverse as electrical devices weather forecasting photography art mass production and even fishing are interwoven with personal and professional tales of achievement Fresh light is shone on controversies and precedence in several important discoveries Using both anecdotal and scientific evidence it is written for those interested in the pursuit of science in the 19th century and the fascinating developments which have proved essential to the technological revolution of the 21st century Proceedings of the Royal Society of London Royal Society (Great Britain),1878 Obituary notices of deceased fellows were included in v 7 64 v 75 is made up of obituaries of deceased fellows chiefly for the period 1898 1904 with a general index to previous obituary notices the notices have been continued in subsequent volumes as follows v 78a 79b 80a b 86a b 87a 88a b Cultures of Empire Catherine Hall,2000 This reader collects together articles by key historians literary critics and anthropologists on the cultures of colonialism in the British Empire in the 19th and 20th centuries It is divided into three sections theoretical emphasizing approaches the colonisers at home and away Paper and the British Empire Timo Särkkä,2020-12-28 Paper and the British Empire examines the evolution of the paper industry within British organisational frameworks and highlights the role of the Empire as a market and business making area in a world of shrinking commerce and rising trade barriers Drawing on a valuable range of primary sources this book covers the period 1861 1960 and examines events from the establishment of free trade backed by the gold standard to Britain s membership of the European Free Trade Association In the field of the paper industry the speed and intensity of the industrialisation process around the globe have been shaped by a wide variety of variables including the surrounding institutional framework entrepreneurial and organisational strategies the cost and accessibility of transport and the availability of capital knowledge energy resources and technology The supply of papermaking raw materials has also been key and has historically been the most important determinant for geographical location and dominance The research in this work focuses on the roles played by such variants on the one hand and demand characteristics on the other In particular it considers developments connected to a quest for Empire grown raw materials in order to tackle the problem of the lack of indigenous raw materials and the resulting dependence on Scandinavian wood pulp imports This text is of considerable interest to advanced students and researchers in economic history business history and the paper industry and will also be useful to organisations working within the pulp and paper industries Capability Brown, Royal Gardener Jonathan Finch,Jan Woudstra,2020-10-26 Lancelot Capability Brown was one of the most influential landscape designers of the eighteenth century at a time when Britain was changing radically from an agrarian to an industrial and colonial nation whilst Europe was periodically convulsed by war and revolution The extent and nature of his influence are however fiercely debated Brown worked at hundreds of important sites across England and his name became synonymous with the English Garden style which was copied across Northern Europe and entranced Catherine the Great who remodelled her landscapes in St Petersburg to reflect the new style He was f ted in his time and recognised by the Crown but Brown s style was readily copied over his later life and particularly after his death Arguably this ubiquity led to the denigration of his achievements and even his character particularly by the agents of the Picturesque The lack of any personal primary material from Brown forcing scholars to rely on his landscapes contracts and bank accounts has hindered attempts to provide a rounded and credible account of the man and his works However by exploring his team of associates and his role as Royal Gardener new light can be thrown on the man his landscapes and his landscape legacy Bringing together a number of perspectives from across Northern Europe Capability Brown Royal Gardener explores the lasting international impact of Brown With Brown s position as Royal Gardener at its heart this book explores for the first time his business methods working methods and European influence It assesses how crucially Brown s work practices placed him within the world of nurserymen and landscape designers and how his business practices and long term relationships with draughtsmen and designers allowed him to manage a huge number of projects and a substantial financial turnover This in turn allowed him to work in a way that promoted and advanced his style of landscape Edited by Professor Jonathan Finch University of York and Dr Jan Woudstra University of Sheffield and with a varied range of engaging contributors drawn internationally from archaeology art history history and landscape architecture Capability Brown Royal Gardener weaves together strands from across a broad range of disciplinary interests It makes an important contribution to the scholarly discussion of Brown s work the work of his collaborators and legacy in the UK and across Northern Europe Relevant to students and academics at all levels this volume throws new light on Capability Brown and his impact on the business of place making in Northern Europe States of Knowledge Sheila Jasanoff, 2004-07-31 The authors demonstrate that the idiom of co production importantly extends the vocabulary of the traditional social sciences offering fresh analytic perspectives on the nexus of science power and culture
