The Making Of Wales:

J. E. Lloyd and the Creation of Welsh History Huw Pryce, 2011-05-15 This is the first book about the historian John Edward Lloyd 1861 1947 whose A History of Wales from the Earliest Times to the Edwardian Conquest 1911 marks a turning point in the writing of Welsh history The Making of Wales John Davies, 1996 An illustrated survey of the history of Wales from Palaeolithic times to the present day Creu Cymru Countryside Council for Wales, 2001 A History of Wales John Davies, 2007-01-25 Stretching from the Ice Ages to the present day this masterful account traces the political social and cultural history of the land that has come to be called Wales Spanning prehistoric hill forts and Roman ruins to the Reformation the Industrial Revolution and the series of strikes by Welsh miners in the late twentieth century this is the definitive history of an enduring people a unique and compelling exploration of the origins of the Welsh nation its development and its role in the modern world This new edition brings this remarkable history into the new era of the Welsh Assembly Administrative Law and The Administrative Court in Wales David Gardner, 2016-09-20 As we progress into the twenty first century Wales is acquiring a new identity and greater legislative autonomy The National Assembly and the Welsh Government have power to create laws specifically for Wales In parallel the judicial system in Wales is acquiring greater autonomy in its ability to hold the Welsh public bodies to account This book examines the principles involved in challenging the acts and omissions of Welsh authorities through the Administrative Court in Wales It also examines the legal provisions behind the Administrative Court the principles of administrative law and the procedures involved in conducting a judicial review as well as other Administrative Court cases Despite extensive literature on public and administrative law none are written solely from a Welsh perspective this book examines the ability of the Welsh people to challenge the acts and omissions of Welsh authorities through the Administrative Court in Wales Digital inclusion in Wales Great Britain: Parliament: House of Commons: Welsh Affairs Committee, 2009-08-04 The Wales Office and the Welsh Assembly Government must ensure UK digital inclusion initiatives meet Welsh needs and build on existing good work to deliver on Welsh digital ambitions says the Welsh Affairs Committee in a report published today This report Digital Inclusion in Wales examines the use of digital technologies in Wales highlights the urgent need for the eradication of broadband notspots areas with limited or no access to high speed internet connections and says this issue must continue to receive priority attention There should be more support to help a wider range of people use technology effectively Employers told the Committee they need staff with better IT skills and more training opportunities The Committee recommends the Welsh Assembly Government explicitly includes this issue in its digital inclusion strategy The digital inclusion agenda is a complex mix of reserved and devolved matters This brings a risk that key issues can be overlooked for example no account has been taken of Welsh language speakers needs in the Government's Digital Inclusion Action Plan The Secretary of State for Wales must ensure that bodies in Wales across all sectors are fully engaged with initiatives and that the next stage of Digital Britain adequately reflects Welsh needs Higher education institutions also have a vital role to play and should be involved in any new research opportunities The Welsh Assembly already has successful digital inclusion projects in Wales and it should find a way to become fully involved with the UK digital inclusion and Digital Britain work so it does not miss out on policy developments and funding opportunities The Committee also recommends the creation of a one stop shop providing advice on the risks for young people using technology and commends the Assembly's work tackling internet related crimes which it says should be promoted as part of the economic development strategy in Wales
