The Making of America Robert Marion La Follette, 1905      Making the Modern American Fiscal State Ajay K. Mehrotra, 2013-09-30 At the turn of the twentieth century the US system of public finance underwent a dramatic transformation The late nineteenth century regime of indirect hidden partisan and regressive taxes was eclipsed in the early twentieth century by a direct transparent professionally administered and progressive tax system This book uncovers the contested roots and paradoxical consequences of this fundamental shift in American tax law and policy It argues that the move toward a regime of direct and graduated taxation marked the emergence of a new fiscal polity a new form of statecraft that was guided not simply by the functional need for greater revenue but by broader social concerns about economic justice civic identity bureaucratic capacity and public power Between the end of Reconstruction and the onset of the Great Depression the intellectual legal and administrative foundations of the modern fiscal state first took shape This book explains how and why this new fiscal polity came to be      Making Americans Jessica Lander, 2022-10-04 2024 recipient of the George Orwell Award for Distinguished Contribution to Honesty and Clarity in Public Language given by the National Council of Teachers of English Making Americans shines a light on the barriers that immigrant students in the US face and shares some inspiring stories about students who have overcome them Bill Gates A landmark work that weaves captivating stories about the past present and personal into an inspiring vision for how America can educate immigrant students Setting out from her classroom Jessica Lander takes the reader on a powerful and urgent journey to understand what it takes for immigrant students to become Americans A compelling read for everyone who cares about America's future Making Americans brims with innovative ideas for educators and policy makers across the country Lander brings to life the history of America's efforts to educate immigrants through rich stories including these The Nebraska teacher arrested for teaching an eleven year old boy in German who took his case to the Supreme Court The California families who overturned school segregation for Mexican American children The Texas families who risked deportation to establish the right for undocumented children to attend public schools She visits innovative classrooms across the country that work with immigrant origin students such as these A school in Georgia for refugee girls who have been kept from school by violence poverty and natural disaster Five schools in Aurora Colorado that came together to collaborate with community groups businesses a hospital and families to support newcomer children A North Carolina school district of more than 100 schools who rethought how they teach their immigrant origin students She shares inspiring stories of how seven of her own immigrant students created new homes in America including the following The boy who escaped Baghdad and found a home in his school's ROTC program The daughter of Cambodian genocide survivors who dreamed of becoming a computer scientist The orphaned boy who escaped violence in the Democratic Republic of the Congo and created a new community here Making Americans is an exploration of immigrant education across the country told through key historical moments current experiments to improve immigrant education and profiles of immigrant students Making Americans is a remarkable book that will reshape how we all think about nurturing one of America's greatest assets the newcomers who enrich this country with their energy talents and drive The Making of America ,1907 Making America Luther S. Luedtke,1992 In this richly interdisciplinary work twenty eight of the nation's leading critics and scholars offer a comprehensive exploration of American society and culture Each outstanding in his or her own field the contributors address America from a diversity

Everybody's Magazine ,1900 The Making of Our United States Ray Osgood Hughes,1927 Movies as History Marie L. Aquila,2014-04-22 Popular movies can enhance the study of history A dominant form of entertainment throughout the 20th century they can serve as nontraditional primary sources and offer remarkable opportunities to observe attitudes about social concerns gender or racial issues politics and historical events that were current when the movies were made This book is a topical guide for educators providing detailed analysis of 35 movies followed by discussion questions that will help students interpret how each movie's content and themes reflect the times when it was made The book covers four main topics the Great Depression World War II the early years of the Cold War and the changing expectations and images of women in movies from 1930 to 1970 An historical overview chronicles how each topic was treated in movies from that time period The movies should have wide appeal in grades 7 through 12 and can help students learn to think more critically about the images and messages that appear in popular media today American Revisions and Additions to the Encyclopaedia Britannica ,1892 Making America's Budget Policy Joseph J. Minarik,1990-03-11 Making America's Public Lands Adam M. Sowards,2022-04-15 In the United States the federal government owns more than a quarter of the nation's landscape nearly 640 million acres or more than a million square miles which if consolidated would make it the tenth largest nation on earth Primarily managed by four federal agencies the Bureau of Land Management the U S Forest Service the U S Fish and Wildlife Service and the National Park Service American public lands have been central to developing the American economy state and identity The history of these lands intersects with critical components of the American past namely nature politics and economics From the beginning the concept of public has been the subject of controversy from visions of homesteaders realizing the ideal of the Jeffersonian republic to western ranchers who use the open range to promote a free enterprise system to wilderness activists who see these lands as wild places free from human encumbrance Environmental historian Adam Sowards synthesizes public lands history from the beginning of the republic to recent controversies Since public lands are located everywhere including iconic national parks like Yellowstone or the Grand Canyon Americans at large have a stake in these lands They are after all ours In a real sense this book is for those citizens who camp in the national forests drive through the national parks or admire distant wilderness landscapes These readers will gain a greater appreciation for the long and complex history of the range of these places One Hundred Years of American Commerce Chauncey Mitchell Depew,1895 The American Bookseller ,1888 The Spectator ,1897 The Makings
