The Male Mid-life Crisis Nancy Mayer, 1979      Seasons of Learning Vernon A. Howard, 1998-02-24 The first in depth treatment of the school work transition this book raises the level of discussion above simple how to strategies Howard considers the values choices responsibilities and challenges facing the student leaving college or graduate professional school The transition from school to work entails a reconstruction of experience and of the self that marks the beginning of a crucial stage in the course of a life Besides shifts in the aims and values attached to learning for school and for work there are commitments and costs involved in professional life that require special consideration if one is to avoid the hazards of burnout narrowness and the loss of cherished skills To survive personally and professionally in the new ruthless economy one needs to be highly adaptable and able to communicate well In this thought provoking book Howard underscores the utility of a broad liberal education as a preparation for work      The Male Mid-Life Crisis Nancy Mayer, 1979-02      Broken Dreams Mark Jackson, 2021-06-10 The midlife crisis has become a cliché in modern society Since the mid twentieth century the term has been used to explain infidelity in middle aged men disillusionment with personal achievements the pain and sadness associated with separation and divorce and the fear of approaching death This book provides a meticulously researched account of the social and cultural conditions in which middle aged men and women began to reevaluate their hopes and dreams reassess their relationships and seek new forms of identity and fresh pathways to self satisfaction Drawing on a rich seam of literary medical media and cinematic sources as well as personal accounts Broken Dreams explores how the crises of middle aged men and women were shaped by increased life expectancy changing family structures shifting patterns of work and the rise of individualism      Essentials of Psychology John P. Houston, Helen Bee, David C. Rimm, 2013-09-24 Essentials of Psychology introduces contemporary psychological research and caters to the varied needs of students and instructors The book is composed of 14 basic chapters which provide comprehensive coverage of theories and research within each of the traditional areas of psychology Chapters are dedicated to topics that discuss the major divisions of psychology the physiological basis of behavior the ways people change and the ways they stay the same over time personality and behavior assessment and treatment of psychological problems Psychologists students and teachers of psychology will find this textbook very invaluable      Adult Development Calvin A. Colarusso, Robert A. Nemiroff, 2013-11-22 This volume is about the normal development of adulthood as well as its vicissitudes and the contributions of such development to psychopathology The authors are psychoanalysts of great clinical skill and perceptiveness but while their focus is consistently a psychodynamic one their conceptualizations about adult developmental processes are applicable to virtually all kinds of therapy It is extraordinary how little attention has been paid to the effects of adult developmental experience on mental development Obviously mental structures are not static after the profound experiences of childhood and adolescence nor are they merely a template upon which adult experiences are processed The authors clearly demonstrate that current adult experience always adds to and interacts with existing mental structure which is itself the result of all preceding development After a first section in which they examine life cycle ideas on development from antiquity to the present they present their own work as it relates to adult experience and adult development Their hypotheses about the psychodynamic theory of adult development are particularly creative and an enormous contribution to the psychiatric literature and the clinical understanding of patients Consistent with their views that development in adulthood is an ongoing and dynamic process they elaborate their ideas that childhood development is focused primarily on the formation of psychic structure while adult development is concerned with the continued evolution of existing structure and its use
