The Manson Murders A Philosophical Inquiry:

The Manson Murders David Edward Cooper,1974 Murder Cases of the Twentieth Century David K. Frasier,2024-10-14 From Jack Henry Abbott who stabbed a waiter through the heart for not allowing him to use the toilet to the Zodiac an unknown California serial killer who may have murdered as many as 37 people this reference work details 280 of the most famous murder cases of the twentieth century Each entry contains when applicable birth and death dates aliases occupation location of the murders weapons used number of victims and the time period when the killings occurred Films plays television shows videos and audio programs based on or inspired by the case are then cited followed by a brief overview of the murder case and a bibliography of English language works related to it Reflections on Ethics and Responsibility Zachary J. Goldberg,2017-02-06 The original essays in this book address the influential writings of Peter A French on the nature of responsibility ethics and moral practices French s contributions to a wide spectrum of philosophical discussions have made him a dominant figure in the fields of normative ethics meta ethics applied ethics as well as legal and political philosophy Many of French s deepest insights come from identifying and exploring the scope and nature of moral responsibility and human agency as they appear in actual events real social and cultural practices as well as in literature and film This immediacy renders French s scholarship vital and accessible to a wide variety of audiences The authors recognized for their own contributions to the understanding of the nature of morality and moral practices offer new and unique positions while exploring expanding and responding to those of French The final chapter is written by French in which he provides both new philosophical insight as well as some reflection on his own work and its influence This book will appeal to philosophers as well as advanced students and researchers in the humanities social sciences law and political science

The Fragmenting Family Brenda Almond,2008-08-28 Brenda Almond throws down a timely challenge to liberal consensus about personal relationships She maintains that the traditional family is fragmenting in Western societies causing serious social problems She urges that we reconsider our attitudes to sex and reproduction in order to strengthen our most important social institution the family War and Moral Dissonance Peter A. French,2010-10-25 This collection of essays examines the moral psychological and philosophical dilemmas posed by war The Press on Trial Lloyd E. Chiasson,1997-08-28 Perhaps no drama catches the interest of the American public more than a spectacular trial Even though the reporting of a crime may quickly diminish in news value the trial lingers while drama builds Although this has become seemingly more pronounced in recent years with the popularity of televised trials public interest in criminal trials was just as high in 1735 when John Peter Zenger defended his right to free speech or in 1893 when Lizzie Borden was tried for the murder of her father and stepmother This book tells the stories of sixteen significant trials in American history and their media coverage from the Zenger trial in 1735 to the O J Simpson trial in 1995 Each chapter relates the history of events leading up to the trial the people involved and how the crimes and subsequent trials were reported The Journal of
