The Making of a Nation Arthur Agwuncha Nwankwo, Samuel Udochukwu Ifejika, 1969      New Perspectives on the Nigeria-Biafra War Chima J. Korieh, 2021-10-13 New Perspectives on the Nigeria Biafra War No Victor No Vanquished analyzes the continued impact of the Nigeria Biafra war on the Igbo the failure of the reconstruction and reconciliation effort in the post war period and the politics of exclusion of the memory of the war in public discourse in Nigeria Furthermore New Perspectives on the Nigeria Biafra War explores the resilience of the Igbo people and the different strategies they have employed to preserve the history and memory of Biafra The contributors argue that the war had important consequences for the socio political developments in the post war period ushering in two differing ideologies a paternalistic ideology of co option of the Igbo by the Nigerian state under the false premise of No Victor No Vanquished and the Igbo commitment to self preservation on the other      The Biafran War and Postcolonial Humanitarianism Lasse Heerten, 2017-09-28 A global history of Biafra providing a new explanation for the ascendance of humanitarianism in a postcolonial world      The Creation of States in International Law James Crawford, 2006 Statehood in the early 21st century remains as much a central problem now as it was in 1979 when the first edition of The Creation of States in International Law was published As Rhodesia Namibia the South African Homelands and Taiwan then were subjects of acute concern today governments international organizations and other institutions are seized of such matters as the membership of Cyprus in the European Union application of the Geneva Conventions to Afghanistan a final settlement for Kosovo and still relations between China and Taiwan All of these and many other disputed situations are inseparable from the nature of statehood and its application in practice The remarkable increase in the number of States in the 20th century did not abate in the twenty five years following publication of James Crawford's landmark study which was awarded the American Society of International Law Prize for Creative Scholarship in 1981 The independence of many small territories comprising the residue of the European colonial empires alone accounts for a major increase in States since 1979 while the disintegration of Yugoslavia and the USSR in the early 1990s further augmented the ranks With these developments the practice of States and international organizations has developed by substantial measure in respect of self determination secession succession recognition de colonization and several other fields Addressing such questions as the unification of Germany the status of Israel and Palestine and the continuing pressure from non State groups to attain statehood even in cases like Chechnya or Tibet against the presumptive rights of existing States James Crawford discusses the relation between statehood and recognition the criteria for statehood especially in view of evolving standards of democracy and human rights and the application of such criteria in international organizations and between states Also discussed are the mechanisms by which states have been created including devolution and secession international disposition by major powers or international organizations and the institutions established for Mandated Trust and Non Self Governing Territories Combining a general argument as to the normative significance of statehood with analysis of numerous specific cases this fully revised and expanded second edition gives a comprehensive account of the developments which have led to the birth of so many new states    Biafra Arthur Agwuncha Nwankwo, Samuel Udochukwu Ifejika, 1969    Spanningsveld Afrika, trefpunt Biafra Karel Roskam, 1969    Africa Army Library (U.S.), 1973    A Guide to the Literature of Biafra Joel A.
