The Making Of Australia The Beginning:

Fifty Years in the Making of Australian History Sir Henry Parkes, 1892 A Transnational History of the Australian Animal Movement, 1970-2015 Gonzalo Villanueva, 2017-10-20 This book offers the first transnational historical study of the creation, contention and consequences of the Australian animal movement. Largely inspired by Peter Singer and his 1975 book Animal Liberation, a new wave of animal activism emerged in Australia and across the world. In an effort to draw public and media attention to the plight of animals such as the rearing of pigs and poultry in factory farms and the export of live animals to the Middle East and South East Asia, Australian activists were often innovative and provocative in how they made their claims. Through lobbying, disruptive methods and vegan activism, the animal movement consistently contested the politics and culture of how animals were used and exploited. Australians not only observed and learnt from people and events overseas but also played significant international roles. This book examines the complex and conflicting consequences of the animal movement for Australian politics as well as its influence on broader social change. Creating Australian Television Drama Susan Lever, 2020-11-13 Television drama has been the dominant form of popular storytelling for more than sixty years, shaping the imaginations of millions of people. This book surveys the careers of the central creators of those stories for Australian television: the writers who learnt how to work in a new medium, adapting to its constraints and exploring its creative possibilities. Informed by interviews with many writers, it describes the establishment of Australian television drama production, observing the way writers grasped the creative and business opportunities that television presented. It examines the development of Australian versions of the major television genres: the sitcom, the police drama, the historical series, docudrama and social drama, presenting a canon of significant Australian television drama productions that deserve to be remembered. It offers an account of the emergence of work by Indigenous writers for television and it argues for the consideration of television drama alongside histories of Australian film and stage drama. For years, Susan Lever has been talking to Australia's best television writers about their work, their craft and their industry. Now it's all here in this book, a toast to a vital part of Australian culture. Geoffrey Atherden. This is a wonderful book. Meticulously researched and engagingly written, it tells in fascinating detail, from the writers' points of view, the story of Australian scripted television from its beginnings in the 1950s to the present. Better yet, Susan Lever has allowed the writers themselves to speak about the work, about their visions and processes, their joys and frustrations. I am delighted to see television drama, docudrama and comedy acknowledged so generously for their role in Australian culture. Sue Smith. Brilliantly researched, lucid, comprehensive: the big picture on writers for the small screen in Australia. Ian David. Australian History For Dummies Alex McDermott, 2022-05-09 Discover the fascinating details that make Australia the country it is today. Australian History For Dummies is your rough and ready tour guide through Australia's whirlwind past.
