Companion Encyclopedia of Archaeology Graeme Barker, 2002-08-13 This comprehensive fully illustrated Companion answers the need for an in depth archaeology reference that provides authoritative coverage of this complex and interdisciplinary field The work brings together the myriad strands and the great temporal and spatial breadth of the field into two thematically organized volumes In twenty six authoritative and clearly written essays this Companion explores the origins aims methods and problems of archaeology Each essay is written by a scholar of international standing and illustrations complement the text New World New Mind Robert Evan Ornstein, Paul R. Ehrlich, 2000 There is no longer sufficient time to rely on the normal pace of cultural evolution to deal with today's dilemmas Human beings have always been the most adaptable creatures on the planet and they should be able to chart a new course for themselves Some of that charting is already being done The old mind today is being challenged and changed by many scattered efforts Can we bring these efforts together to produce a large scale program for a rapid change of mind We know what the problem is The solution is not simple to generate the social and political will to move a program of conscious evolution to the top of the human agenda

Africa's Legacies of Urbanization Stefan Goodwin, 2006-03-03 The ability to function safely healthily and productively in urban places is a continuing challenge for people everywhere This challenge is exacerbated when the resources available to people in urban places happen to be severely limited or their ability to make decisions consistent with their welfare severely constrained Nevertheless Africans have manifested great inventiveness and resourcefulness both in contributing to and in adapting to urbanization Africa's Legacies of Urbanization is the culmination of several decades of research travel and teaching Goodwin provides an interdisciplinary and up to date look at African cities and the urbanization process This thought provoking and engaging work tackles the vastness of the mother continent by dividing it into geographic regions western central southern eastern and northeastern Beginning with an overview of the urban experience in Africa Goodwin then studies the histories of urbanization in the various regions of the continent Thoroughly researched and accessibly written this comprehensive work will appeal to scholars of African studies urban studies anthropology and cultural ecology Maya Christians and Their Churches in Sixteenth-Century Belize Elizabeth Graham, 2020-03-17 It is widely held that Christianity came to Belize as an extension of the conquest of Yucatan and that adherence to Christian belief and practice was abandoned in the absence of enduring Spanish authority An alternative view comes from the excavations of Maya churches at Tipu and Lamanai which show that the dead were buried in Christian churchyards long after the churches themselves fell into disuse and pre Columbian ritual objects were cached in Christian sacred spaces both during and after Spanish occupation Excavations also reveal that the architectural style of these early churches is Franciscan in inspiration but nonetheless the product of continuing community efforts at construction and repair A conclusion difficult to ignore is that the Maya of Tipu and Lamanai considered themselves Christians with or without Spanish presence Viewing historical and archaeological data through the lens of her personal experience of Roman Catholicism and informed by feminist approaches Elizabeth Graham assesses the concept of religion the significance of doctrine the empowerment of the individual and the process of conversion by examining the meanings attributed to ideas objects and images by the Maya by Iberian Christians and by archaeologists Graham s provocative study also makes the case that the impact of Christianity in Belize was a phenomenon that uniquely shaped the development of the modern nation A volume in the series Maya Studies edited by Diane Z Chase and Arlen F Chase Time: A Bibliographic Guide Samuel L.
