The Making Of South Yorkshire:

The Making of Sheffield Melvyn Jones, 2004-09-30 Covering thousands of years and a multitude of topics the book tells the story of the development from a group of small agricultural settlements into a town and then a modern city It covers success disappointments miserable periods and glorious episodes that have marked the city s evolution The Making of South Yorkshire David Hey, 1979 Land Reclamation - Extending Boundaries H.M. Moore, H.R. Fox, S. Elliott, 2003-01-01 Attempting to extend the boundaries of land reclamation this publication is a collection of conference papers addressing a range of topics from the practical challenges of cleaning up the most contaminated sites to the creation of new landscapes and the ethical issues surrounding land restoration Economic Policy-Making by Local Authorities in Britain and Western Germany Nevil Johnson, Allan Cochrane, 2017-06-14 Originally published in 1981 but now with a new preface this volume provided the first detailed comparative analysis of how local authorities in the UK and W Germany faced up to the challenge of trying to help local industry and improve employment prospects Based on the results of case studies the book considers the powers and resources available to local authorities and examines how the authorities are organized for this type of economic activity The authors analysis of the interplay of political and administrative factors will be particularly important for student and professionals in comparative public policy and public finance The study shows how economic policy making in local government is constrained both by the higher levels of government in both countries and by the conditions in the economy operating both locally and nationally Medieval South Yorkshire David Hey, 2003 David Hey uses the information on the ground buildings earthworks fields woods market places and roads to reveal the long and interesting history of South Yorkshire The Dairy , 1897 The Official Year-book of the Church of England Church of England, 1891 Engineering , 1874 The Engineer , 1874 Bradshaw's Railway Manual, Shareholders' Guide, and Official- Directory ... , 1896 The Statutes of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland , 1862 Tables and Indexes Great Britain. Parliament. House of Lords, 1878 Papers by Command Great Britain. Parliament, 1895 Iron , 1880 "The" Public General Acts , 1889 The Decline of European Naval Forces Jeremy Stohs, 2018-04-15 The Decline of European Naval Forces aims to provide insight into the evolution of Europe s naval forces since the end of the Cold War To illuminate the drastic changes many European navies have undergone over the last twenty five years Jeremy Stohs analyzes the defense policies and naval strategies of eleven European states as well as the evolution deployment and capabilities of their respective naval forces In these case studies the development of Europe s most important naval forces is assessed per the respective strategic framework in which they have operated over the past two decades Stohs describes not only the general composition of each force but also the range of their capabilities and their important technical features His study shows that since the end of the Cold War all but a few European navies have significantly decreased in size and thus have ceded important capabilities along the way Based on the understanding of sea power as a prerequisite for political influence and economic health the consequences of the geopolitical shift toward the Asian Pacific region and most importantly the general decline of Europe s traditional naval capabilities the author concludes that the ability of European states to influence events near and abroad by means of their naval forces has atrophied and will continue to be called into question in the future Cobbett's Parliamentary Debates Great Britain.
