Ehling, 2001 Includes articles interviews creative writing and book reviews Animist Poetics Ryan Topper, 2025-08-01 Argues that African literature conceptualizes trauma and regeneration as a more than human process offering an animist revision of psychoanalysis Psychoanalytic trauma theory largely disregards African perspectives Postcolonial criticism often filters these perspectives through a secular humanist lens Examining how African literature uses animism to address the traumas of colonization Animist Poetics offers a new understanding of the postcolonial condition From an animist viewpoint the self is not an individual but rather a regenerative process linking the living the dead and their ecosystems Looking at poetry fiction drama and visual art including archival manuscripts by Wole Soyinka and Yvonne Vera Ryan Topper argues that African literature reinvents these Indigenous ecologies in uniquely modern ways Animist Poetics takes Indigenous and literary knowledge seriously rethinking the foundations of psychoanalysis and charting new theoretical paths in posthumanism the environmental humanities new materialism biopolitics and memory studies Postcolonial Imaginations and Moral Representations in African Literature and Culture Chielozone Eze, 2011-12-16 The postcolonial African culture as it is discoursed in the academia is largely influenced by Africa's response to colonialism To the degree that it is a response it is to considerably reactive and lacks forceful moral incentives for social critical consciousness and nation building Quite on the contrary it allows especially African political leaders to luxuriate in the delusions of moral rectitude imploring at will the evil of imperialism as a buffer to their disregard of their people This book acknowledges the social and psychological devastations of colonialism on the African world It however argues that the totality of African intellectual response to colonialism and Western imperialism is equally if not more damaging to the African world In what ways does the average African leader indeed the average African judge and respond to his world How does he conceive of his responsibility towards his community and society The most obvious impact of African response to colonialism is the implicit search for a pristine innocent paradigm in for instance literary philosophical social political and gender studies This search has its own moral implication in the sense that it makes the taking of responsibility on individual and social level highly difficult Focusing on the moral impact of responses to colonialism in Africa and the African Diaspora this book analyzes the various manifestations of delusions of moral innocence that has held the African leadership from the onerous task of bearing responsibility for their countries it argues that one of the ways to recast the African leaders responsibility towards Africa is to let go on the one hand the gaze of the West and on the other of the search for the innocent African experience and cultures Relying on the insights of thinkers such as Frantz Fanon Wole Soyinka Kwame Anthony Appiah Achille Mbembe and Wolfgang Iser this book suggests new approaches to interpreting African experiences It discusses select African works of fiction as a paradigm for new interpretations of African experiences Lupenga Mphande Dike Okoro,2021-04-26 Dike Okoro analyzes the various manifestations of ecocriticism and political activism in the poetry of Lupenga Mphande who is arguably Africa's first poet to explore the existence of territorial cults and natural shrines This book is recommended for students and scholars seeking new interpretations of the African experience in contemporary world literature Pen International ,1986 Encyclopedia of Africa South of the Sahara John Middleton,1997 Arranged alphabetically In addition to biographies extensive country information primarily postindependence and historical events the encyclopedia treats general topics in articles such as agriculture political systems and religion and ritual Medium and Message ,1981 The World of Theatre Mira Felner,Claudia Orenstein,2006 Focus on diversity and globalism integrating coverage of multicultural international and experimental theatre throughout Back cover Great Events from History II.: 1969-1992 Frank Northen Magill,1993 Recounts original articles treating 493 topics and events in twentieth century history spanning the cultural and artistic life of the modern world Includes landmarks in the fine arts art architecture dance fashion and design journalism literature motion pictures music television and radio and theater *Catalog of the Melville J.
