The Man Who Saw The Face Of God:

The Man Who Saw the Face of God George Craig McMillian, 2003 A true adventure story of spiritual search The author leads us through the dark side of religion Sorcery betrayal torture insanity and war then out the other side into a new startling and healing revelation of the Universal Christ He then puts his revelations to the test while living with the Muslims as a peace worker during the Bosnian war

The Man Who Saw the Face of God George McMillian (Kirantana), 2003-11-21 Kirantana The Man Who Saw the Face of God leads us into an honest and adventurous description of the dark side of religion and spiritual search Sorcery betrayal torture insanity and war then out the other side into one of the most startling and healing revelations of the Universal Christ ever put to words in modern literature With the writing of this book Kirantana has created a new authentic form of western Tantra a new way of practicing Christianity far from the rut of conceptual knowledge and into the actual visceral experience of Communion for us all Having lived in Sarajevo as a peace worker during the Bosnian war he gives new insight into the clash of Western religions that transcends all religions not by exclusion but rather by lovingly blending them internally in himself creating a new joyous coherence that becomes a doorway into a happier millennium This was a Christ unlike I had ever heard or read of before This was a Christ for today A Christ that could be understood by all people cultures religions and philosophies that search for truth justice and harmony A Christ for artist sensualist with a little effort even the atheist could grasp this vision I saw the way of peace by seeing that we all came from one common origin as all boundaries were dissolved and I merged into the Infinite called God in the language of our time This book is more than a new philosophy Kirantana takes his visions into the front lines of war and while in meditation with American and other NATO soldiers brings back visions of the balanced use of crazy wisdom compassion He shows us that only by unflinchingly meeting the conflicts of the world head on with this compassion will we be initiated into a new paradigm to give up our ancient habit of learning by pain and instead learn even more by joy and loving kindness to ourselves to each other and to our planet

The Messenger of the Lord in Early Jewish Interpretations of Genesis Camilla Hélène von Heijne, 2010-09-29 The focus of this book is on early Jewish interpretations of the ambiguous relationship between God and the angel of the Lord God in texts like Genesis 16 22 and 31 Genesis 32 is included since it exhibits the same ambiguity and constitutes an inseparable part of the Jacob saga The study is set in the wider context of the development of angelology and concepts of God in various forms of early Judaism When identifying patterns of interpretation in Jewish texts their chronological setting is less important than the nature of the biblical source texts For example a common pattern is the avoidance of anthropomorphism In Genesis the angel of the Lord generally seems to be a kind of impersonal extension of God while later Jewish writings are characterized by a more individualized angelology but the ambivalence between God and his angel remains in many interpretations In Philo's works and Wisdom of Solomon the Logos and Lady Wisdom respectively have assumed the role of the biblical angel of the Lord Although the angelology of Second Temple Judaism had developed in

The holy Bible, with a comm. and critical notes by A. Clarke Thornley Smith,1881 WHO IS GOD? Sougou Bruno SANON,2017-07-24 The notion of the word God has been misunderstood for long and by many people scientists have searched him through their apparatus many times and speculated about his existence with their scientific knowledge but since then they have never seen Him with their human eyes neither with their telescope because God is merely and only a Spirit How many people are praying every day a God that they don t really know that they have never seen and have never come to the full knowledge of his attributes or tasted them The question we should ask ourselves is this can we worship and please God without knowing exactly what He likes or dislikes We believe in God not because we have seen him but because He exists not because he is the more people have tried to blindfold and embarrass others about this notion of supreme being the more voices have risen to demonstrate that God doesn t exist and that there is no life after death the more the proof of his existence and the understanding of his attributes become more and more clear We have been so impatient with God to the point that our misconception about his nature our problems suffering and lack led us to question many times the existence and power of that supreme Spirit If God exists why can t He put an end immediately to all the troubles of the world Does God care about our pain does He see when our world is about to fall when tears are streaming down from our eyes Does He care when people friends have abandoned us and said bye bye to us When diseases are knocking at our doors When people are dying under the threat of bullets When an airplane crashes or when a bomb strikes an area Or when an act of kamikaze kills a lot of people It seems clearly to me that today when people manufacture something they accompany it with a handbook just to help the user know how to use their invention easily and suitably The same thing applies to God our manufacturer He created us not because He wanted his creatures to suffer problems come just because we don t know who He really is and we don t follow the manual which He gave us which is supposed to guide our life Knowing God that s to say knowing his nature and obeying his commandments are therefore more important than our prayers or just believing that He exists In this book we are going to explore all the attributes of this God to remove once and for all the misconceptions about Him we are going to demonstrate that life continues after death and that there is also a final judgment Welcome to who is God welcome to his true knowledge The roots of the mountains. Mukendi,2017-05-31 No book has ever attempted to deal with the subject of divinity in its entirety Here at long last is a comprehensive book dealing with divine beings in its complexity It provides the reader with accurate and insightful knowledge concerning the concept of divinity The author gives a clear explanation of the Triune nature of God God is one being manifest and existing in three distinct identities or persons which is further discussed as being comparable with the makeup of a human being God shares his divine nature with spiritual beings in the heavens with angels and on earth with humankind The divine nature of God resides in all spirits Therefore men have Gods nature in their spirits they can communicate with and receive the things of the spiritual realm Through sin humanity has lost the nature of God for all have sinned and fall short of the glory of God The purpose of the Bible is to spiritualize humankind because we have fallen short of the glory of God The broad focus of this book is to bring as many believers to a stage of maturity in the knowledge of Christ
