The Manchurian Candidate:

The Manchurian Candidate Richard Condon, 2013-09-05 Brilliant wild and exhilarating New Yorker Sgt Raymond Shaw is a hero of the first order He is an ex prisoner of war who saved the life of his entire outfit a winner of the Congressional Medal of Honor the stepson of an influential senator and the perfect assassin Brainwashed during his time as a POW he is a sleeper a living weapon to be triggered by a secret signal He will act without question no matter what order he is made to carry out To stop Shaw his former commanding officer must uncover the truth behind a twisted conspiracy of torture betrayal and power that will lead both to the highest levels of the government and to Shaw's own past

The Manchurian Candidate John Lahr, 1993 The Manchurian Candidate Stephen Badsey, 1998 The Manchurian Candidate Greil Marcus, 2020-05-14 It may be the most sophisticated political thriller ever made in Hollywood film critic Pauline Kael wrote of John Frankenheimer's terrifying 1962 political thriller about an American serviceman brainwashed in Korea and made into an assassin Sophisticated to be sure it is also a headlong fall through the looking glass of American politics and the most deeply prophetic film of the second half of the American century As Greil Marcus reconstructs the drama The Manchurian Candidate is a movie in which the director and actors including Laurence Harvey Frank Sinatra and Angela Lansbury in an Academy Award nominated performance were suddenly capable of anything beyond any expectations This edition includes a new foreword highlighting the movie's terrifying contemporary relevance in the age of Trump and Russian interference in the US Presidential election

The Manchurian Candidate George Axelrod, 2004 The Manchurian Candidate (1962) - DVD , The Manchurian Candidate , 2004 The Manchurian Candidate George Axelrod, John Frankenheimer, 2002 A US Army platoon captured in the Korean conflict is whisked to Manchuria for three nightmarish days of experimental drug and hypnosis induced conditioning that transform one of them into a human time bomb

A Little Solitaire Murray Pomerance, R. Barton Palmer, 2011 Think about some commercially successful film masterpieces The Manchurian Candidate Seven Days in May Seconds Then consider some lesser known yet equally compelling cinematic achievements The Fixer The Gypsy Moths Path to War These triumphs are the work of the best known and most highly regarded Hollywood director to emerge from live TV drama in the 1950s five time Emmy award winner John Frankenheimer Although Frankenheimer was a pioneer in the genre of political thrillers who embraced the antimodernist critique of contemporary society some of his later films did not receive the attention they deserved Many claimed that at a midpoint in his career he had lost his touch World renowned film scholars put this myth to rest in A Little Solitaire which offers the only multidisciplinary critical account of Frankenheimer's oeuvre Especially emphasized is his deep and passionate engagement with national politics and the irrepressible need of human beings to assert their rights and individuality in the face of organizations that would reduce them to silence and anonymity

The Search for the "Manchurian Candidate" John Marks, 1978 Here is the extraordinary story of how the Central Intelligence Agency waged a careful and systematic assault on the human psyche John Marks

reveals what was perhaps the most sinister activity ever engaged in by an organ of the United States government He describes how the government conducted a series of secret programs to find ways to control human behavior More than a spy story John Marks has both documented a major portion of the concealed history of our time and spelled out the tragic costs of secrecy and lack of accountability to the democratic system The Manchurian Candidate, Directed by Jonathan Demme ,2004 The Manchurian Candidate, Etc Richard Thomas CONDON,1962 The Manchurian Candidate Richard Condon,2004 Among the most taut and influential thrillers ever produced director John Frankenheimer s The Manchurian Candidate is a bleak mordant spy thriller in which communist brainwashing and mother love make a potentially lethal combination Plagued by recurring nightmares a shell shocked career soldier Frank Sinatra begins to suspect that a fellow GI Laurence Harvey is not in fact a war hero but rather a brainwashed enemy operative If he s right can he figure out his old pal s mission Frankenheimer made a pair of disturbing noirish masterpieces in the early 60s this film and Seconds Both offer subversive visions of modern society and the illusions it perpetuates but The Manchurian Candidate benefits from a superior cast In a film filled with exceptional performances Angela Lansbury stands out brilliantly alternating between the simpering supportive wife and mother she plays in public and the steely ruthless puppet master she is behind the scenes Featuring crisp expressionistic black and white cinematography and an early for Hollywood bout of onscreen martial arts The Manchurian Candidate is a textbook on how to construct an unforgettable and thought provoking political thriller What Have They Built You to Do? Matthew Frye Jacobson,Gaspar González, Considered by many to be the best political thriller ever made The Manchurian Candidate is as entertaining troubling and relevant today as it was in 1962 Starring Frank Sinatra Laurence Harvey and Angela Lansbury and directed with probing insight by John Frankenheimer the film was widely acclaimed as a masterpiece Largely out of circulation for the next two decades it acquired a well deserved cult following until it was rereleased during the last year of the Reagan presidency when its pointed satire of political and media manipulation seemed more timely than ever In What Have They Built You to Do a key line of dialogue from the original film Matthew Frye Jacobson and Gaspar Gonz lez undertake an ambitious reexamination of The Manchurian Candidate the 1959 novel by Richard Condon on which it was based and critically analyzed here for the first time the 2004 remake directed by Jonathan Demme Based on close readings of the film and broad investigations into the eras in which it was made and rediscovered the authors decode the many layers of meaning within and surrounding the film from the contradictions of the Cold War it both embodies and parodies McCarthyism and Kennedy liberalism individualism and conformity to its construction of Asian villains overbearing women and male heroes in a society anxious about race gender and sexuality Through their multifaceted analysis of The Manchurian Candidate in all its incarnations Jacobson and Gonz lez raise provocative questions about power and anxiety in American politics and society from the Cold War to today Matthew Frye Jacobson teaches American studies at Yale University His books include Roots Too White Ethnic Revival in Post Civil Rights America Gaspar Gonz lez is an independent scholar and journalist in Miami He has taught American studies at Yale University and film studies at the University of Miami

The Manchurian Candidate George Axelrod,1962      The Cold War on Film Paul Frazier,2021-07-12

The Cold War on Film illustrates how to use film as a teaching tool It stands on its own as an account of both the war and the major films that have depicted it Memories of the Cold War have often been shaped by the popular films that depict it for example The Manchurian Candidate The Hunt for Red October and Charlie Wilson's War among others The Cold War on Film examines how the Cold War has been portrayed through a selection of 10 iconic films that represent it through dramatization and storytelling as opposed to through documentary footage The book includes an introduction to the war's history and a timeline of events Each of the 10 chapters that follow focuses on a specific Cold War film Chapters offer a uniquely detailed level of historical context for the films weighing their depiction of events against the historical record and evaluating how well or how poorly those films reflected the truth and shaped public memory and discourse over the war A comprehensive annotated bibliography of print and electronic sources aids students and teachers in further research

How historical social and cultural forces shaped the psychedelic experience in midcentury America from CIA LSD experiments the Harvard Psilocybin Project Are psychedelics invaluable therapeutic medicines or dangerously unpredictable drugs that precipitate psychosis Tools for spiritual communion or cognitive enhancers that spark innovation Activators for one's private muse or part of a political movement In the 1950s and 1960s researchers studied psychedelics in all these incarnations often arriving at contradictory results In American Trip Ido Hartogsohn examines how the psychedelic experience in midcentury America was shaped by historical social and cultural forces by set the mindset of the user and setting the environments in which the experience takes place He explores uses of psychedelics that range from CIA and military experimentation to psychedelic inspired styles in music fashion design architecture and film Along the way he introduces us to a memorable cast of characters including Betty Eisner a psychologist who drew on her own experience to argue for the therapeutic potential of LSD and Timothy Leary who founded the Harvard Psilocybin Project and went on to become psychedelics most famous advocate Hartogsohn chronicles these developments in the context of the era's cultural trends including the cold war the counterculture the anti psychiatric movement and the rise of cybernetics Drawing on insights from the study of science technology and society he develops the idea of LSD as a suggestible technology the properties of which are shaped by suggestion He proposes the concept of collective set and setting arguing that the historical and sociocultural context of midcentury America offered a particular set and setting creating the conditions for what he calls the American trip
