Most critics have ignored the fact that Grove spent the first thirty years of his life in Germany where he was exposed to various artistic and philosophical influences most importantly the Neo Romanticism of the Stefan George circle and the philosophy of Friedrich Nietzsche. This book argues that Grove's Canadian writing exhibits the same intellectual preoccupations as do his German works and that the unifying element is the Nietzschean influence on the texts. In this thesis all of Grove's writings are examined under the premise that Nietzschean philosophy contributes significantly to an understanding of Grove's fiction. The book examines Grove's German works Wanderungen Helena und Damon Fanny ESSLER and Mausermeister Ihles Haus in the light of the various intellectual and artistic movements prevalent in Germany. It then examines Grove's Canadian writing dividing it into four thematic groups the struggle between individual and nature the attempt to overcome one's sexual passions the attempt to establish a patriarchal family structure and the power struggle that underlies social life. The thesis concludes with an analysis of superhuman perspectives and qualities in Grove's critique of mankind in Consider Her Ways and of his own life in In Search of Myself. Webster's New Explorer Thesaurus Merriam-Webster, Inc,1999 This brand new thesaurus was created to make the task of finding the right word easier than ever.
