Manuscripts, and Language of Roberto Caracciolo da Lecce ,2024-11-11 The book offers studies on different aspects of the life activity and written works of Roberto da Lecce one of the most famous preachers of fifteenth century Italy His preaching cycles in Italian cities were attended by huge crowds and are representative for the activity of many other less known confreres and in the meantime exceptional for their number and success His sermons were read and re used throughout Europe contributing to shaping the shared religious culture The nine authors of this book have addressed this polyhedral figure from ten different perspectives Contributors are Yoko Kimura Salvatore Leaci Andrea Rado evi Cecilia Rado Carolyn Muessig Giacomo Mariani Marco Maggiore Lyn Blanchfield and Steven J McMichael      Penitence, Preaching and the Coming of the Reformation Anne T. Thayer,2017-07-05 Why did the Reformation take root in some places and not others Although many factors were involved the varying character of penitential preaching across Europe in the decades prior to the Reformation was an especially important contributor to the subsequent receptivity of evangelical ideas In this book several collections of model sermons are studied to provide an overview of late medieval teaching on penitence What emerges is a pattern of differing emphases in different geographical locations with the characteristic emphases of the penitential message in each region suggesting how such teaching prepared the ground for both the appeal and the reputation of Luther s message People heard and interpreted the new theology using the late medieval penitential understandings and expectations they had been taught The variety of teaching found in the Church left different regions vulnerable or resistant to evangelical critiques and alternatives Despite current academic claims that the establishment of the Reformation cannot have resulted from lay religious understanding this study offers evidence that theological ideas did reach beyond religious elites to promote a degree of popular support for the Reformation      Mary Magdalene.
