The Making Of Advertising Gleanings From Subhas Ghosal:

The Making of Advertising Syeda Imam, 2002 Subhas Ghosal was a towering personality in the profession and in the business of advertising. He is widely considered as one of the founding fathers of advertising in India. This book provides rare learning for all advertising professionals and also the The Emergence of Brand-Name Capitalism in Late Colonial India Douglas E. Haynes, 2022-09-22 This book examines the emergence of professional advertising in western India during the interwar period. It explores the ways in which global manufacturers advanced a brand name capitalism among the Indian middle class by promoting the sale of global commodities during the 1920s and 1930s, a time when advertising was first introduced in India as a profession and underwent critical transformations. Analysing the cultural strategies both verbal and visual used by foreign businesses in their advertisements to capture urban consumers, Haynes argues that the promoters of various commodities crystalized their campaigns around principles of modern conjugality. He also highlights the limitations of brand name capitalism during this period, examining both its inability to cultivate markets in the countryside or among the urban poor and its failure to secure middle class customers. With numerous examples of illustrated advertisements taken from Indian newspapers, the book discusses campaigns for male sex tonics and women's medicines, hot drinks such as Ovaltine and Horlicks, soaps such as Lifebuoy, Lux and Sunlight, cooking mediums such as Dalda, and electrical household technologies. By examining the formation of brand name capitalism and two key structures that accompanied it, the advertising agency and the field of professional advertising, this book sheds new light on the global consumer economy in interwar India and places developments in South Asia into a larger global history of consumer capitalism. Nawabs, Nudes, Noodles Ambi Parameswaran, 2016-05-16 This is as much the story of Indian advertising as it is about India. Ad veteran Ambi Parameswaran looks at how advertising has evolved, reflecting the country's culture, politics and economy in the last fifty years. From sartorial taste and food habits to marriage and old age, music and language to celebrities and censorship, Ambi examines over a hundred ads to study how the Indian consumer has changed in the past five decades and how advertising and society have shaped each other. Combining anecdote and analyses to give us a slice of modern history, Ambi evaluates the relationship between affluence, aspiration and desire in India. Exploring trends and impacts, he covers the ads that captured the imagination of the entire country. From Only Vimal and Jai Jawan Jai Kisan to Jo biwi se kare pyaar and the controversial Tuffs shoes campaign, the book is a memorable journey through brands, consumers and the world of advertising. Indian Books in Print, 2003 Advertising - Concepts And Cases - V. Parthasarathy, 2004-04-15 The book focuses on concepts of Advertising and what the Father of Indian advertising, Subhas Ghosal, says. How to treat the customer, the place of humour in advertising, targeting ads to children and adapting advertisements to the right media are explored.
