

A group of approximately 15 children, mostly of elementary school age, are dressed in late 19th-century clothing. They are standing in a group, looking upwards with expressions of awe and joy. The children are wearing a variety of hats, including bowlers, top hats, and large decorative hats. Their dresses and suits are in period style, with some featuring ruffles and high collars. The background is a simple, painted backdrop of a building with windows and a door.
