

THE MOON

by JACKIE HOSKING

There's a moon
On my walk
At the top of the hill
And it's perfectly round
And it's perfectly still
And it holds back the clouds
With its circle of light
And it's perfectly round
And it's perfectly bright
It's as full
As a hug
And as cool as a stare
And it's perfectly round
Even when it's not there.

The Man in the Moon and Other Poems Pascal R. Politano, 2005-02-23 Politano has this to say about his poetry This collection of poems is strictly my own work without aid or assistance from anyone I am grateful of course in a general way to the professors in the schools colleges and universities I have attended as both student and lecturer who helped provide me with a breadth and depth of knowledge without which this little book would not have been possible I am grateful also to the many authors both good and bad or merely forgettable whose work has helped to give me a sense of balance in my poetry But I am most grateful for the fact that I have lived long enough and participated sufficiently in the business of life to make some sense of certain matters concerning the human condition about which in my earlier years I was absolutely mystified and at times even terrified Diane Wakowski author of more than sixteen volumes of poetry and Michigan State University Professor and Writer in Residence said this Pascal R Politano s poetry offers gracefully presented traditional language is well ordered rhythmic and concise It avoids prosy explanations poeticized cliches and the mundane sentimental phrases that can often mar a poem s possible elegance
