The Manchurian Candidate The Classic Thriller Of Mind Manipulation:

Psycho Thrillers William Indick, 2013-10-18 Mind control madness and altered states of reality can make for exciting nights at the movies which explains the enduring popularity of a film genre that might be called the psycho thriller Psychiatry and film came of age simultaneously and characters such as the evil psychiatrist and the pathological killer were often developed in direct reference to the psychological themes that inspired them For example the penchants of Hitchcock s famously creepy Norman Bates represented real psychological disorders and his actions were explained through psychoanalysis The psycho thriller presents a world where psychology represents a dimension of supernatural and metaphysical wonders The introduction analyzes what makes a psycho thriller and subsequent chapters are devoted to each of the archetypal psycho thriller characters the mad scientist the psycho killer the individual with psychic powers and the psychiatrist and themes mind control dreams memory and existential issues The concluding chapter lists the top twenty psycho thrillers Stills from classic films in the genre illustrate the text which also includes filmography bibliography and index

From Box Office to Ballot Box M. Keith Booker, 2007-02-28 Given the complexity and expense of making and distributing a film the process of filmmaking is by its very nature a political process Moreover given the power and persuasiveness of the cinema as a medium film can be a powerful political tool It should thus come as no surprise that film has had a long and extensive engagement with a variety of political topics ranging from the actual mechanics of governance to electoral politics to any number of specific political issues Through a film by film examination of the movies explicitly concerned with American politics and American political issues From Box Office to Ballot Box provides valuable new insights into our culture s perceptions of various political environments and serves as a witness to the cinema s own complex contribution to the media s coverage of and relationship to American politics at large From Box Office to Ballot Box takes as its subject films exploring the electoral process the process of governing and the involvement of the media in both Separate chapters also deal with films related to specific political issues or phenomena that are particularly relevant to the above three categories including labor and class the Cold War the Vietnam War and the other recent conflicts in which the media has played such a large role Specific films discussed include Citizen Kane All the King s Men The Manchurian Candidate All the Presidents Men The Front M A S H JFK Nixon Wag the Dog Three Kings Black Hawk Down The Quiet American The Contender and many more

Science Fiction Television M. Keith Booker, 2004-07-30 Science fiction series have remained a staple of American television from its inception classic programs such as The Twilight Zone The Outer Limits and Star Trek along with recent and current series including Babylon 5 and Stargate SG 1 have been some of the most enduring and influential of all television shows In this chronological survey author M Keith Booker examines this phenomenon and provides in depth studies of the most important of these series Science Fiction Television traces the development of the genre as a distinct cultural phenomenon within the context of broader developments in American culture as a whole In the process it offers a unique and informative guide for television fans and science fiction fans alike one whose coverage is unprecedented in its scope and breadth A must read for anyone interested in its subject or in American popular culture Science Fiction Television is a perceptive and entertaining history of one of television s most lasting forms of entertainment The War Veteran in Film Emmett Early,2010-07-27 Movies have provided a record of the war veteran as he was viewed within his own culture and within the culture in which the movies were produced Thus movies account for a significant portion of what people know about the war veteran and how he fared during and after the war In this book the author examines 125 movies from the classical era to the 20th century that feature the war veteran The author provides commentary on specific categories the films can be organized into and notes similarities between films produced in different periods The categories deal with the wounded veteran returning home e g The Sun Also Rises The Best Years of Our Lives Born on the Fourth of July The Manchurian Candidate the veteran struggling with guilt revenge and post traumatic stress disorder Anatomy of a Murder Lethal Weapon Desert Bloom In Country Jacob s Ladder the war veteran returning in disguise Ulysses Ivanhoe The Seventh Seal The Man in the Gray Flannel Suit the war veteran as a social symbol Dances with Wolves Gosford Park The Legend of Bagger Vance The Big Chill Gods and Monsters Cornered the war veteran in action The Born Losers Conspiracy Theory She Wore a Yellow Ribbon Saint Jack Looking for Mr Goodbar and the war veteran before during and after the war The Deer Hunter Forrest Gump

Movies and the Modern Psyche Sharon Packer,2007-09-30 By looking at the interactions between cinema and psychology Packer offers readers clear and basic insights into some of the most fundamental reasons why film is such an important influence upon our lives today Movies and the Modern Psyche first describes the basic concepts of psychoanalysis experimental psychology behavioral conditioning and hypnosis which have all played major roles in the histories of both film and psychiatry It then goes on to discuss the recent rise in film therapy drug treatments treatment for drug abuse and the closing of asylums to show how shifts in treatment techniques theories and settings are foreshadowed and fossilized by film Psychology and cinema are kindred cousins born at the same time and developing together so that each influences the other From the mind controlling villains that occupy early horror films and Cold War thrillers like Caligari Mabuse and The Ipcress File to the asylums that house numberless political allegories and personal dramas in Shock Corridor Spellbound One Flew over the Cuckoo s Nest and Girl Interrupted to the drugs phobias and disorders that pervade so many of our favorite films including as a small sample Vertigo Night of the Hunter Psycho Rainman Fight Club Requiem for a Dream and Batman Begins there is no escaping either psychology in the movies or the movies in psychology By looking at the interactions between cinema and psychology this book offers readers clear and basic insights into some of the most fundamental reasons why film is such an important influence upon our lives today Movies and the Modern Psyche first describes the basic concepts of psychoanalysis experimental psychology behavioral conditioning and hypnosis which have all played major roles in the histories of both film and psychiatry It then goes on to discuss the recent rise in film therapy drug treatments treatment for drug abuse and the closing of asylums to show how shifts in treatment techniques theories and settings are foreshadowed and fossilized by film To Acknowledge a War Paul M. Edwards,2000-06-30 Historians often refer to the Korean War as the forgotten war but Edwards argues that in many respects it is a conflict that has been deliberately ignored for the past fifty years This broad look at the war examines how Americans have attempted to remember and commemorate the confrontation which played such a major role in America's Cold War experience As a United Nations effort or Police Action the hazy identification of the war has in part contributed to a lack of public understanding of what happened in Korea This book considers the American response to the loss in Korea and how this response played out as a failure to remember After discussing the phenomenon of historical absence the essays turn to the still considerable disagreement about who started the war and why They provide the latest information concerning the relationship between Chairman Mao Premier Kim Il Sung and Chairman Joseph Stalin at the outbreak of the conflict Edwards identifies lesser known figures and comments on operations that are not generally known or discussed He discusses the impact that revisionist historians have had on our views of the war and why it produced a cease fire rather than a peace treaty The study also places this still unresolved conflict in the context of multi national forces and peacekeeping actions as we understand them today

Encyclopedia of Film Themes, Settings and Series Richard B. Armstrong,Mary Willems Armstrong,2001 Library Journal called the earlier version of this work then titled The Movie List Book the most valuable film reference in several years Now ten years later it has been completely revamped to include over 670 entries on a variety of film themes settings and series Each entry contains a mini essay that defines the topic followed by a chronological list of representative films The entries range from themes reincarnation viral epidemics twins to settings lighthouses asylums sewers occupations librarians lumberjacks veterinarians supernatural and mythological creatures vampires mermaids gorgons sports golf football pool animals alligators dogs whales and of course hundreds more The book also contains an extensive list of film characters and series including B movie detectives Mr Moto Philo Vance Western heroes The Durango Kid Red Ryder made for television film series Moment of Truth In the Line of Duty and foreign film good guys El Santo and bad guys Fantomas Many entries are cross referenced to direct readers to related topics From the Abominable Snowman to Zorro this encyclopedia provides film scholars and fans with an easy to use reference volume for researching film themes or tracking down obscure movies on subjects such as suspended animation robots submarines ventriloquists and the Olympics GLQ ,2005 The Blood Poets Jake Horsley,1999-11-17 This thought provoking and insightful study of 40 years of American violent cinema ties together the multiple disciplines of psychology criminology censorship and anthropology The study is divided into two volumes Volume 1 American Chaos From Touch of Evil to The Terminator and Volume 2 Millennial Blues From Apocalypse Now to The Matrix Horsley raises a new dialogue between scholars and movie buffs as readers struggle to find their own answers to the connection between the need to portray and the need to watch violent films Medium Cool Ethan Mordden,1990 With authorit and wit Ethan Mordden explores American film and filmmakers in a crucial decade the 1960s the decade in which the way Hollywood made movies and the way audiences perceived them were transformed showing readers how film reflected rather than gilded everyday life 60 photographs Time, 1988 Chambers Dictionary of the Unexplained Una McGovern, 2007 Contains over 1300 entries on unexplained phenomena
