Horror as Racism in H. P. Lovecraft John L. Steadman,2024-01-11 Providing a new perspective on Lovecraft s life and work Horror as Racism in H P Lovecraft focuses on the overlap between the writer s personal beliefs and the racist images and narratives in his speculative fiction Building on recent debates about Lovecraft and drawing on the concept of white fragility John Steadman argues that the writer s fiction reflects his feelings of resentment and anger towards non white persons and was used to advocate for his racist xenophobic political beliefs that western civilization was in decline and slavery was justifiable among superior civilizations In making these claims Lovecraft s tales pit humans against extra terrestrial aliens developing a terrifying futuristic vision of the Earth as a plantation planet The familiar image of Lovecraft as a reclusive creative genius and mentor to young writer friends is dismantled through close readings of his fiction and nonfiction including correspondence essays and poetry and examination of his early biography This image is replaced by that of a cruel callous and at times psychotic man a violently vitriolic racist and white supremacist who hated most of the non white races While some will dismiss the author outright and others will read his fiction but ignore the racism Horror as Racism in H P Lovecraft takes a middle ground acknowledging Lovecraft s personal history and heinous intentions it helps readers navigate the author s disturbing biography while also getting a better sense of the stories which remain significant within American science fiction The Lurking Fear H.P. Lovecraft,2020-01-14 The Lurking Fear is a horror short story by American writer H P Lovecraft Written in November 1922 it was first published in the January through April 1923 issues of Home Brew The story is narrated by an unnamed seeker of strange horrors who is investigating the massacre of a community of some six dozen backwoods degenerates in an obscure region of the Catskills a massacre which occurred during a particularly violent electrical storm and seems to have been perpetrated by an unidentified clawed beast The narrator soon
