The Lycett Album Joseph Lycett, National Library of Australia, 1990 Collection of reproductions of twenty watercolours painted by the convict artist Joseph Lycett depicting Aboriginal life in NSW in the 1920s and now held by the National Library of Australia Includes an introduction by Jeanette Hoorn of The Melbourne University Fine Arts Department

Aboriginal Peoples and Birds in Australia Philip A. Clarke, 2023-04-03 Australia is home to many distinctive species of birds and Aboriginal peoples have developed close alliances with them over the millennia of their custodianship of this country Aboriginal Peoples and Birds in Australia Historical and Cultural Relationships provides a review of the broad physical historical and cultural relationships that Aboriginal people have had with the Australian avifauna This book aims to raise awareness of the alternative bodies of ornithological knowledge that reside outside of Western science It describes the role of birds as totemic ancestors and spirit beings and explores Aboriginal bird nomenclature foraging techniques and the use of avian materials to make food medicine and artefacts Through a historical perspective this book examines the gaps between knowledge systems of Indigenous peoples and Western science to encourage greater collaboration and acknowledgment in the future Cultural sensitivity Readers are warned that there may be words descriptions and terms used in this book that are culturally sensitive and which might not normally be used in certain public or community contexts While this information may not reflect current understanding it is provided by the author in a historical context This publication may also contain quotations terms and annotations that reflect the historical attitude of the original author or that of the period in which the item was written and may be considered inappropriate today Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander peoples are advised that this publication may contain the names and images of people who have passed away

Sydney's Food Landscapes Joshua Zeunert, Alys Daroy, 2025-06-20 The story of Sydney's metropolitan food landscapes is one of dramatic transformations of First Nations land amidst jostles for power and wealth This book unearths Sydney's lost commercial agriculture since colonisation in 1788 to assess its fragile food futures Richly illustrated 270 images are encapsulated within 110 figures including an array of original metropolitan scale mappings Discussion traverses the city's diverse cultural influences from Indigenous land management to British pastoralism Chinese cultivation of Sydney's backyard vegetable garden and southern European farming spawning billion dollar empires The region has further been shaped by a vast array of cultural and ideological factors and material practices with relevance to planning policy ethics geography heritage art design and technology This book is the first to bring Sydney's disparate post colonial food histories together in one volume to explore the dynamics and tensions between urban growth and food production The relevance of Sydney's food landscapes therefore extends far wider than the city itself with implications for countless regions worldwide in a time of increasing climate and resource precarity

The Story of Australia Louise Johnson, Tanja Luckins, David Walker, 2021-09-02 The Story of Australia provides a fresh engaging and comprehensive introduction to Australia's history and geography An island continent with distinct physical features Australia is home to the most enduring Indigenous cultures on the planet In the late eighteenth century newcomers from distant worlds brought great change Since that time Australia has been shaped by many peoples with competing visions of what the future might hold This new history of Australia integrates a rich body of scholarship from many disciplines drawing upon maps novels poetry art music diaries and letters government and scientific reports newspapers architecture and the land itself engaging with Australia in its historical geographical national and global contexts It pays particular attention to women and Indigenous Australians as well as exploring key themes including invasion colonisation land use urbanisation war migration suburbia and social movements for change Elegantly written readers will enjoy Australia s story from its origins to the present as the nation seeks to resolve tensions between Indigenous dispossession British tradition and multicultural diversity while finding its place in an Asian region and dealing with global challenges like climate change It is an ideal text for students academics and general readers with an interest in Australian history geography politics and culture The Artificial Horizon Martin Edward Thomas,2004 Martin Thomas takes the reader on a journey through a compelling study of culture landscape and mythology For both Aboriginal people and their colonisers the rugged landscape of the Blue Mountains has stood as an intriguing riddle and a stimulus to the imagination The author evokes this dramatic and bewildering landscape and leads his readers through the cultural history of the locality in order to probe the dreamwork of imperialism

Land Air Sea Jennifer Ferng,Lauren Jacobi,2023-12-14 Land Air Sea Architecture and Environment in the Early Modern Era positions the long Renaissance and eighteenth century as being vital for understanding how many of the concerns present in contemporary debates on climate change and sustainability originated in earlier centuries Traversing three physical and intellectual domains Land Air Sea consists of case studies examining how questions of environmentalism were formulated in early modern architecture and the built environment Addressing emergent technologies indigenous cultural beliefs natural philosophy and political statecraft this book aims to recast our modernist conceptions of what buildings are by uncovering early modern epistemologies that redefined human impact on the habitable world 65,000 Years: A Short History of Australian Art Marcia Langton,Judith Ryan,2024-10-15 65 000 Years A Short History of Australian Art stares into the dark heart of Australia s brutal colonial history and offers new insights into the first art of this country Long before Britain s invasion of Australia in 1788 First Peoples cultural and design traditions flourished for thousands of generations Their art shaped the continent as we know it today and the societies that thrived here but these continuing artistic practices and new art forms were disregarded by the settlers and not considered to be fine art until the late 1980s In this publication twenty five writers urge us to reconsider the art history that is unique to the Australian continent and to acknowledge its rise to prominence in modern times Featuring new writing by leading thinkers across generations and disciplines it celebrates Indigenous Australian art across media time and language groups Today Indigenous art and artists are at the forefront of contemporary art practice In very real and tangible ways this publication reveals the artistic brilliance of Australia's First Peoples and stands as a testament to their resilience. This book is published in association with a major exhibition at the University of Melbourne's revitalised Potter Museum of Art opening in 2025. Also titled 65 000 Years A Short History of Australian Art the exhibition curated by Professor Marcia Langton AO Ms Judith Ryan AM and Ms Shanysa McConville features over 400 artworks that celebrate the longevity and brilliance of Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander art despite a difficult history of colonialism and scientific racism. Joseph Lycett Joseph Lycett, John A. McPhee, 2006. JOSEPH LYCETT CONVICT ARTIST examines the life and work of one of Australia's earliest colonial artists Joseph Lycett worked in Australia from 1815-1822 and was responsible for the most extravagantly illustrated account of the colony published in London in 1824-25. His works in watercolour and oil are among the most important visual records of early New South Wales and Tasmania documenting the life of the Aboriginal people the landscape and its flora and the towns houses and properties of colonial Australia from a time when there were few such competent artists in the colony. This book includes most of Joseph Lycett's known works and many are published for the first time. It presents new interpretations and a new appreciation of the accomplishments of this prolific but elusive figure of early Australian art. Unstable Ground Gay McAuley, 2006. As an art form that is utterly dependent on its own spatiality theatre has a major contribution to make to contemporary debates about space and place. In this book Australian academics explore the nexus between place and performance in practices ranging from mainstream theatre to site specific performance.

Australian Aboriginal Studies, 1992. Sydney's Aboriginal Past Val Attenbrow, 2010. This second edition of Sydney's Aboriginal Past draws on the latest historical archaeological geological environmental and linguistic research as well as oral evidence of present day Aboriginal people to reveal the diversity of Aboriginal life in the Sydney region before during and for the first thirty years of British settlement. Australian Books in Print 1999 K G Saur Books, 1999-04.
