The Madhouse:

Into The Madhouse Nellie Bly, 2021-01-25 PLUCKY NELLIE BLY No young writer has ever leaped into such sudden fame in New York as Miss Nellie Bly who did that lunatic asylum exposure for the New York World She is a bright handsome young lady less than twenty years old who came to the metropolis from Pittsburg a few months ago and pluckily undertook to make her living by newspaper work in the great city She deceived the expert physicians who examined her and pronouncing her insane they consigned her to one of the insane wards of Blackwell's Island where she dwelt among horrors for ten days noting down in her quick brain all that she saw and heard The old song says Nellie Bly shuts her eye When she goes to sleep but she seems never to have closed a peeper during the whole of that trying ordeal Her narrative of the horrors of the place the indifference of doctors the neglect and cruelty of the nurses and the tortures inflicted upon the unfortunates is told in a plain straightforward manner and attests at once to her humanity and truth November 1887 This volume collects for the first time ever all the reporting surrounding Nellie Bly's blockbuster undercover story that launched her to fame including all three versions from her own pen Bly's initial account across three articles for the New York World Bly's bestselling book Ten Days In A Mad House Bly's long form 1889 article Among The Mad for Godey's Lady's Book Also included are over two dozen contemporary articles relating to Bly's madhouse stay including the attempt by the New York Sun to scoop Bly on her own story With a foreword by David Blixt author of What Girls Are Good For A Novel Of Nellie Bly The Master Of Verona and Her Majesty's Will

Bringing Your Heart to Work Hazel Hyslop, 2025-05-22 Bringing your Heart to Work A Seven Step Journey to Mental Health and Wellbeing is based on Hazel Hyslop's experience of working as a mental health specialist locally and globally It gives an account of her personal experience of burnout and her witnessing of burnout among her colleagues and clients In her own journey to self care Hazel kept journals of her experiences and noticed a pattern in what worked She started using some of these principles in her work as she began to see a parallel process with many of her clients and colleagues For example most of her clients were women most high achievers had great careers but secretly harboured passions that they were not pursuing The drive to succeed led to increased stress and burnout as well as questioning their identity and purpose in life What was becoming clearer with each client was that their story was mirroring her own story Hazel too had been on the hamster wheel for many years trying to achieve success She reached a point in her life where she no longer knew who she was She had become lost confused scared Hazel had no professionals to emulate in her family Her parents their parents and the generations before had completed only basic elementary schooling Her determination to do well coupled with expectations from others led her to push herself to get to the top as quickly as she could. She had to beat all odds to become the first one in her family to go to secondary school to university to become a professional. As newborns we come into the world as pure beings. However by the age of seven years we are influenced by those around us and our beliefs systems are formed. We are programmed for success based on who we are, what we have or what we do and what others think of us. However over time we start to recognise that this is not enough. The more we strive the more we become dissatisfied. A familiar story from clients is I feel lost, I have no purpose or I feel stuck. I don't know who I am anymore. With the help of Hazel's Seven Step Journey model clients are able to facilitate a transformation to help regain purpose and a sense of self. The model uses the metaphor of a journey, the book asks the reader to take a voyage through their lives offering tools to gain clarity and find better solutions. This journey is illustrated with client stories to demonstrate how the model helped them to transform and to give hope to the reader for their own metamorphosis. At a time when so many are experiencing overwork, overwhelm and overthinking, Bringing your Heart to Work: A Seven Step Journey to Mental Health and Wellbeing is the ideal book to quieten the noise and recapture you are and who you want to be.

THE MONTH. A CATHOLIC MAGAZINE AND REVIEW., 1884 The Burning of the Books and Other Poems George Szirtes, 2009

The title poem of George Szirtes The Burning of the Books and Other Poems is the core of this collection of narrative sequences by a writer who came to Britain as a child refugee after the Hungarian Uprising. Book burning is associated with the Nazis' burning of what they considered to be subversive books in 1933 but the practice has a long history right down to our own day.

In this particular case the burning refers to the library of Kien the scholar in Elias Canetti's novel Auto Da F. The poems follow and expand from the events of Canetti's book in a variety of forms not previously used by Szirtes. Two further sequences are concerned with history and documentary one about the discovery of small snippets of film recording the liberation of Penig concentration camp where Szirtes' mother was imprisoned and another of songs concerning war and documentary photography There are also prose poems monologues a series of canzoni a group of poems exploring the origins of love in childhood and another based on the mythical travels of Sir John Mandeville about the Hungarian Uprising of 1956 The book as a whole constitutes an exploration of the range and flexibility of a voice attuned to the patterns of history and the way such patterns transform our sense of the present Poetry Book Society Recommendation shortlisted for the T S Eliot Prize A Lexical Concordance to the Poetical Works of Percy Bysshe Shelley Percy Bysshe Shelley,1892
