Making Of Economics, The (4th Edition) - Vol II: The Modern Superstructure E Ray Canterbery, 2009-06-15 Volume II in The Making of Economics 4th Edition series fills a major gap in the literature of economics providing in brief fashion a complete treatment of high theory in economics Like Volume I the book is accessible to the intelligent reader be they advanced undergraduate or graduate students laypeople or professors of economics and finance The author walks the reader through the maze of contemporary economics acquainting them with the most up to date theories as well as recent economic history The learning tasks are eased by volleys of examples as well as dramatic illustrations The progression is from neoclassical Keynesian economics to monetarism continuing with mathematical economics and econometrics the theory of economic growth the new classical economics game theory experimental economics and global economics For example common threads between Smithian classical economics and new classical economics are woven into the fabric of discussions directing the way to the higher theory The new chapters on mathematics and econometrics game theory experimental economics and globalization are not to be found in other surveys of what the author calls the Modern Superstructure of Economics Although designed to be used with Volume I it can also stand alone as a text or textbook supplement for a wide range of courses in economics and finance This book is also available as a The Makers of Modern Economics Arnold Heertje, 1997 This volume looks at the careers education achievements and views on future research of some of this century's most influential economists

Making Of Economics, The (4th Edition) - Vol III: The Radical Assault E Ray Canterbery, 2009-12-14 This book is the first in the field to cover exclusively the modern radical economists Science has always had its radicals economics is unexceptional in this regard The book begins with the persona of Karl Marx and his soulmate Friedrich Engels the most radical of all continuing with the central ideas of Marx including his theory of capitalism and an understanding of why in Marx's view capitalism is doomed Thereafter Thorstein Veblen fills the role as the USA radical who founded the only uniquely American school of economics the institutionalist school This is followed by Joseph Schumpeter and his theory of capitalist motion According to Schumpeter the demise of capitalism is self inflicted through creative destruction The bestselling authors Robert Heilbroner and John Kenneth Galbraith straddle both the institutionalist and Post Keynesian schools The new left radicals emanated from Galbraith's Harvard University and are still around today The heyday of the new right came during the administration of Ronald Reagan and was led by the neo Austrians Finally the book concludes by analyzing the Post Keynesians claim to be the legitimate heirs to Keynesianism Thus far they fall into the radical camp This book is also available as a Panel Data Econometrics Pietro Balestra, 2000 The main focus of this book is on various theoretical and practical issues in the field of panel data econometrics This is an important and active field of research with significant relevance for empirical studies in a variety of subjects including economics finance social sciences health etc This book presents contributions by several leading experts who provide their views on a wide range of topics both theoretical and applied that can serve as a basis for future research on the methodology and applications of panel data modelling Areas of application of panel data modelling have only been increasing over the past years and there is no doubt that the range is going to expand further The applied papers of this book have been regrouped as one major part and further subdivided into different fields thus showing their variety and opening up the horizon for researchers in these and other fields The reader will notice that they all have a substantial methodological content which is indispensable for their analysis of the economic social or other phenomena under consideration This first part includes such diversified areas of study as macroeconomics social economics insurance finance and energy economics As a second part there are papers that deal more with theoretical issues such as specification problems unit root tests and aggregation of individual series heteroscedasticity tests for panel data models and non parametric techniques The final part contains papers that are directly related to and elaborate on Balestra s work The Making of Economics E. Ray Canterbury,2003 Volume II in The Making of Economics 4th Edition series fills a major gap in the literature of economics providing in brief fashion a complete treatment of high theory in economics Like Volume I the book is accessible to the intelligent reader be they advanced undergraduate or graduate students laypeople or professors of economics and finance The author walks the reader through the maze of contemporary economics acquainting them with the most up to date theories as well as recent economic history The learning tasks are eased by volleys of examples as well as dramatic illustrations The progression is from neoclassical Keynesian economics to monetarism continuing with mathematical economics and econometrics the theory of economic growth the new classical economics game theory experimental economics and global economics For example common threads between Smithian classical economics and new classical economics are woven into the fabric of discussions directing the way to the higher theory The new chapters on mathematics and econometrics game theory experimental economics and globalization are not to be found in other surveys of what the author calls the Modern Superstructure of Economics Although designed to be used with Volume I it can also stand alone as a text or textbook supplement for a wide range of courses in economics and finance This book is also available as a
