Lives Through the Years Claudine G. Wirths, Richard A. Williams, 2017-07-12 Growing old what is it like What are the main problems of the aging Lack of fulfillment in their work and life Loneliness Anxiety about sickness and disability Fear of death This well documented theoretically systematic and vivid account of the process of aging provides highly enlightening answers and dispels once and for all many of the myths surrounding the close to 20 million Americans who are over sixty five Building upon the results of extensive interviews the authors have established the existence of six styles and have concluded that a successful transition to old age can be achieved through any of them They have also developed a definition of success which has practical implications since it deals with the extent to which an individual contributes or is a burden to the lives of those around him The combined analysis of style and success results in a better understanding of individual differences in aging The reader comes to know and understand the subjects as if he had worked with them in person The wealth of detail the case histories contain permits scholars and students to judge for themselves the validity of the authors findings Derived from this unusually rich body of material the authors conclusions and recommendations are invaluable to all concerned with the study the treatment and the counseling of the aged Lives Through the Years is a pioneering volume of social inquiry and interpretation which marks a major scientific advance in its field opens up new horizons for fruitful research and offers a stimulating and authoritative generalized philosophically but strikingly Freudenthal shows that this concept formation itself was linked to the specific social relations of the times of Newton and Hobbes      Ebony ,1982-04 EBONY is the flagship magazine of Johnson Publishing Founded in 1945 by John H Johnson it still maintains the highest global circulation of any African American focused magazine      Life and Labour of the People in London Charles Booth,1892      Demorests' Monthly Magazine ,1882
