The Iconography of Humiliation in New Kingdom Egypt Mark D. Janzen, 2024-11-26 This volume analyzes the iconography of bound foreigners on New Kingdom monuments and artifacts to better understand Egyptian perspectives on foreigners and their treatment of prisoners of war. Depictions of foreign captives in humiliating or torturous poses are ubiquitous in Egyptian iconography and reflect the celebratory nature of royal ideology in this case by degrading enemies. Egyptologists have scrutinized these scenes for details regarding various military matters but existing scholarly literature offers few studies focused on enemy captives and the sheer physical brutality of the depictions of their bindings. Janzen examines the bound foreigner motif in New Kingdom sources demonstrating that these prisoners of war played vital roles in Egyptian ideology and religion. Their depictions in bizarre or torturous poses served to reinforce ideological underpinnings of pharaoh's right to rule perpetually ritualizing their defeat and or punishment through the presence of this iconography on ceremonial objects used primarily by the king and on temple walls and monuments. The subjugation of foreigners also constituted an important economic function as incorporating prisoners of war into the Egyptian workforce was crucial for economic prosperity and growth in New Kingdom Egypt. The volume also explores cross cultural and anthropological parallels placing Egyptian treatment of foreign prisoners in its ancient context. The book provides a fascinating study of the subject suitable for scholars and students of Egyptology and ancient history particularly that of New Kingdom Egypt as well as those working on power warfare and violence in the ancient world more broadly. Egyptian Deportations of the Late Bronze Age Christian Langer, 2021-09-20 Egyptian Deportations of the Late Bronze Age explores the political economy of deportations in New Kingdom Egypt ca 1550-1070 BCE from an interdisciplinary angle. The analysis of ancient Egyptian primary source material and the international correspondence of the time draws a comprehensive picture of the complex and far reaching policies. The dataset reveals their geographic scope economic and demographic impact in Egypt and abroad as well as their interconnection with territorial expansion international relations and labour management. The supply chain profiting institutions and individuals in Egypt as the well as the labour tasks origins and the composition of the deportees are discussed in detail. A comparative analytical framework integrates the Egyptian policies with a review of deportation discourses as well as historical premodern and modern cases and enables a global and diachronic understanding of the topic. The study is thus the first systematic investigation of deportations in ancient Egyptian history and offers new insights into Egyptian governance that revise previous assessments of the role of forced migration and unfree labour in ancient Egyptian society and their long term effects. Specifications and Drawings of Patents Issued from the United States Patent Office United States.
