SOE in France: An Account of the Work of the British Special Operations Executive in France 1940-1944 History of the Second World War M. R. D. Foot, 2019-02-06 The Special Operations Executive SOE was a British secret service formed in 1940 to encourage underground resistance to Hitler's Germany. This book, based on a mass of official and hitherto unavailable material, presented for the first time an account and analysis of SOE's work in France. Foot provides some background to the origins and nature of the SOE and describes the operations of agents who worked on French soil. He concentrates on the work of the independent French section, though he also covers SOE's five other sections operating mainly in France. The six sections despatched over 1,800 clandestine agents who between them changed the course of the war. In chapters on strategy and politics, Foot discusses the comparative value of SOE's effort and of more normal methods of war. As part of the HMSO History of the Second World War series, the text is highly authoritative and supported by plates and four coloured maps.

Foot, 1992-01-01 SOE in France, 1941-1945 Robert Bourne-Patterson, 2016-10-31 The confidential report on the Special Operations Executive's extensive activity in World War II France, now available to the public. In the archives of the Special Operations Executive lay a report compiled by a staff officer and former member of SOE's French Section, Major Robert Bourne Patterson, that until recently could not be published. Because of the highly sensitive nature of the work undertaken by the SOE, the paper was treated as confidential and its circulation was strictly limited to selected personnel. Now at last it can be made available to the general public. The time available to Bourne Patterson in compiling his report in 1946 was limited as the SOE was being wound up and many documents were being weeded from the files. Nevertheless, the paper he wrote gives a good picture of the work of the SOE in France, the country where its operations were most extensive. It contains an overview of operations in France by the Special Operations Executive during the Second World War, with detailed records of individual circuits from their inception onward, containing much information concerning individual agents and their contacts, calendars of subversive activity against the Germans, and the names and addresses of personnel connected with the circuits who had survived the war. In writing his account, Bourne Patterson drew heavily on personal interviews and wartime debriefings by agents. SOE in France M.R.D. Foot, 2004-04-22 This study, first published in 1966, has been updated from closed government records to offer a more complete overview of the activities of the SOE and how it fitted into the Allied war effort in the French theatre of operations. SOE in France 1941-1945 Robert Bourne-Patterson, 2016 In the archives of the Special Operations Executive lay a report compiled by a staff officer and former member of SOE's French Section, Major Robert Bourne Patterson, that until recently could not be published. S.O.E. in France Michael Richard Daniel Foot,1966 Setting France Ablaze Peter Jacobs,2015-09-30 A history of the British intelligence group s operations in France during the Second World War During the summer of 1940 as Britain was fighting alone for its survival the British Prime Minister Winston Churchill instructed the newly formed and clandestine Special Operations Executive to set Europe ablaze From that moment on the S O E took its own war to Nazi occupied Europe by conducting a mix of espionage sabotage and reconnaissance missions with its F Section dedicated to aiding the liberation of France The risks and dangers of being associated with the S O E were obvious and the consequences of being caught could only be imagined by those who volunteered Yet the volunteers still came from all walks of life and each a specialist in their own field Amongst those recruited were Gus March Phillipps who led the Small Scale Raiding Force Peter Churchill who survived by convincing his captors he was related to the British Prime Minister Tommy Yeo Thomas known to the Gestapo as the White Rabbit and the legendary Newton Twins who waged their own private war against the Nazis simply to get personal revenge As F Section grew in numbers it turned to recruiting women and from its ranks came some of the bravest to have operated in occupied Europe These included women such as Odette Sansom Vera Leigh Noor Inayat Khan Violette Szabo and Nancy Wake Then as the Allies invaded Europe in 1944 the S O E inserted small elite teams known as Jedburghs deep behind enemy lines to link up with the French resistance and to coordinate more widespread and overt acts of sabotage to prevent the German reinforcement of Normandy Peter Jacobs describes the extraordinary contribution to the Allied war effort made by the S O E in France and tells the gripping story of the men and women who so bravely operated behind enemy lines many of whom were betrayed and did not live to tell the tale It pays tribute to the extreme courage and bravery of the individuals who did exactly what Churchill asked of them they set France ablaze Praise for Setting France Ablaze Overall this is a useful examination of SOE s operations in France and a tribute to the courage of so many of the agents who attempted to carry out Churchill s instructions to set Europe ablaze History of War A very readable account of the SOE and what went on during the war from the early days of setting up the operation This book is filled with the stories of agents being inserted into France from the early stages following the German invasion A very interesting and thought provoking account of SOE operatives and also a way of remembering the many who never came home Military Modelling Online SOE in France M.
