American Soldiers Peter S. Kindsvatter, 2003 Some warriors are drawn to the thrill of combat and find it the defining moment of their lives Others fall victim to fear exhaustion impaired reasoning and despair This book synthesizes the wartime experiences of American soldiers from the doughboys of World War I to the grunts of Vietnam Focusing on both soldiers and marines it draws on histories and memoirs oral histories psychological and sociological studies and even fiction to show that their experiences remain fundamentally the same regardless of the enemy terrain training or weaponry

The Nation, 1874 The Patrol Ryan Flavelle, 2013-02-26 In 2008 Ryan Flavelle a reservist in the Canadian Army and a student at the University of Calgary volunteered to serve in Afghanistan For seven months twenty-four year old Flavelle a signaller attached to the Princess Patricia's Canadian Light Infantry endured the extreme heat the long hours and the occasional absurdity of life as a Canadian soldier in this new war so far from home

Flavelle spent much of his time at a Canadian Forward Operating Base FOB living among his fellow soldiers and occasionally going outside the wire For one seven-day period Flavelle went into Taliban country always walking in the footsteps of the man ahead of him meeting Afghans and watching behind every mud wall for a sign of an enemy combatant The Patrol is a gritty boots on the ground memoir of a soldier's experience in the Canadian Forces in the 21st century It is about why we fight why men and women choose such a dangerous and demanding job and what their lives are like when they find themselves back in our ordinary world The Journal of Military History, 2007 Launch the Intruders Carol Reardon, 2005 Carol Reardon chronicles the operations of Attack Squadron 75 the Sunday Punchers and their high risk bombing runs launched off the USS Saratoga during the famous Linebacker campaigns Based on access to crew members and their families her book blends military and social history to offer a look at the air war in Southeast Asia The Publishers Weekly, 1981 The Paths of Glory Brian M. Downing, 2003 The Paths of Glory is a timely and engaging study of the effects of modern war on America The World Wars and Vietnam the author argues formed the basic contours of much of twentieth century American history political economic social and cultural America in 1917 was a confident and optimistic nation Only a year later after the Great War this was no longer the case Leaders lost the romantic aura they had long enjoyed Religious strictures began to fall away consumerism replaced denial In 1938 the country was mired in depression the New Deal was in disarray and unemployment was soaring the country seemed near collapse At the close of the Second World War unemployment was low beliefs and institutions were once more held high Confidence and faith continued until the 1960s but Vietnam undermined almost all beliefs and institutions Wars have propelled America from a traditional past structured by families communities religion faith in progress and a sense of a national whole to a postmodern present of atomization fragmentation secularization and anomie We may see the old beliefs and institutions of America as good or bad fair or unjust universal or particularistic but they served an important integrative role and nothing has taken their place Brian M Downing is the author of several works on the influence of war in history including The Military Revolution and Political Change At the age of eighteen he studied Vietnamese history under the auspices of the Department of Defense and he later held positions at Harvard University and the University of Chicago He is currently writing a study of war religion and the state in Antiquity part of a larger study of war romance in Western history from ancient times until the present Battle and Culture Tarak Karim Barkawi, 2001
