Teenage Confidential An Illustrated History Of The American Teen:

Teenage Confidential Michael Barson, 2005 Teen Movies Timothy Shary, 2005 Teen Movies American Youth on Screen is a detailed look at the depiction of teens on film and its impact throughout film's history Timothy Shary looks at the development of the teen movie the rebellion the romance the sex and the horror up to contemporary portrayals of ever changing youth Films studied include Rebel Without a Cause 1955 Splendor in the Grass 1961 Carrie 1976 The Breakfast Club 1985 and American Pie 1999 Young Adult Literature, Fourth Edition Michael Cart, 2022-05-09 Editorial Advisory Board Sarah Park Dahlen Associate Professor School of Information Sciences University of Illinois Urbana Champaign Marianne Martens Associate Professor School of Information Kent State University Amy Pattee Associate Professor and Co coordinator of Dual Degree MS LIS MA Children's Literature School of Library and Information Science Children's Literature Simmons University Comprehensive and substantial a highly recommended resource raved VOYA about the third edition Now to keep pace with changes in the field of publishing and realign itself to the newest generation of young adults Cart returns with a sweeping update of his classic text Relied upon by educators LIS instructors and students and practitioners for its insight and thoroughness his book surveys the landscape of YA lit both past and present sketching out its origins and showing how it has evolved to deal with subjects every bit as complex as its audience closely examines teen demographics literacy audiobooks the future of print the role of literary criticism and other key topics provides updated coverage of perennially popular genre fiction including horror sci fi and dystopian fiction delves deeply into multicultural and LGBTQIA literature substantially updated in this edition features expansive interviews with best selling authors like Eric Shanower Jackie Woodson and Bill Konigsberg as well as several publishers and leaders in the field discusses the impact of the Printz Award ALAN's Walden Award the National Book Award The Los Angeles Times Book Award and other honors and features abundant bibliographic material to aid in readers advisory and collection development Teenagers Aidan Macfarlane, Ann McPherson, 2017-07-24 Ever felt you need to turn to a whole team of advisers for help in bringing up your wayward children From psychiatrists to cooks from laundry maids to substance abuse counsellors Then this book an easy to read guide to teenagers and how to live happily with them is aimed at you By interviewing over 40 parents and their offspring and based on up to the minute medical and social facts the authors have produced a handbook that highlights areas of conflict and advises on how to get things right For both parents who want to get maximum enjoyment out of life with their teenagers and for teenagers to give to their parents this book seeks to cover everything you want to know about friendships drugs sex bullying grief eating disorders and general teenage living Serving Young Teens and 'Tweens Sheila B. Anderson, 2006-11-30 Notable teen experts and stellar practitioners from across the country explain why library service to adolescents in this age range is so important and how you can enhance your collection and services to accommodate and win over this important group Topics range from understanding adolescent informational needs and building and promoting a winning collection to creating programs with tween appeal Contributors include Sheila B Anderson James Rosinia Deb Taylor Robyn Lupa and Kristine Mahood Brimming with valuable insights and fresh ideas as well as nuts and bolts directions this is a must read for all librarians who work with young adolescents If someone is described as a young adult what image comes to mind In fact a young adult can be a twelve year old middle schooler or a high school graduate Libraries have traditionally offered a variety programs and services for YAs and although more emphasis has been given to serving teens in recent years little has been done to distinguish between groups within the category and meet the specific developmental needs of this broad range of library users This collection complements Anderson s previous collection Serving Older Teens by focusing on the needs of tweens and young teens ages 11 14 This is the age range when many young people stop using the library and lose interest in reading Notable teen experts and stellar practitioners from across the country explain why service to adolescents in this age range is so important and how you can enhance your collection and services to accommodate and win over this important group Topics range from understanding adolescent informational needs and building and promoting a winning collection to creating programs with tween appeal Contributors include Sheila Anderson James Rosinia Deb Taylor Robyn Lupa Brenda Hager and Kristine Mahood Brimming with valuable insights and fresh ideas as well as nuts and bolts directions this is a must read for all librarians who work with young adolescents

Generation Multiplex Timothy Shary, 2014-04-01

Generation Multiplex 2002 was the first comprehensive study of the representation of teenagers in American cinema since David Considine s Cinema of Adolescence in 1985 This updated and expanded edition reaffirms the idea that films about youth constitute a legitimate genre worthy of study on its own terms Identifying four distinct subgenres school delinquency horror and romance Timothy Shary explores hundreds of representative films while offering in depth discussion of movies that constitute key moments in the genre including Fast Times at Ridgemont High A Nightmare on Elm Street The Breakfast Club Say Anything Boyz n the Hood Scream American Pie Napoleon Dynamite Superbad The Twilight Saga and The Hunger Games Analyzing developments in teen films since 2002 Shary covers such topics as the increasing availability of movies on demand which has given teens greater access to both popular and lesser seen films the recent dominance of supernatural and fantasy films as a category within the genre and how the ongoing commodification of teen images in media affects real life issues such as school bullying athletic development sexual identity and teenage pregnancy

From Television to the Internet Wiley Lee Umphlett, 2006 This book complements and expands on the commentary and conclusions of the author s initial inquiry into the modern era of media made culture in The Visual Focus of American Media Culture in the Twentieth Century FDUP 2004 From the 1890s on to the 1920s and the Depression and World War II years society s pervasively communal focus demanded idealized images and romanticized interpretations of life But the communal imperative as it was impacted on by evolving social change harbored the seeds of its own disintegration

contemporary Chinese films angry and alienated youth Filmmakers treated youth as a separate category and showed them in urban situations behaving in unconventional and socially rebellious ways Young Rebels in Contemporary Chinese Cinema looks for evidence in films that exemplify this trend Extreme Teens Sheila B. Anderson, 2005-10-30 It's easy to make assumptions about teens high school dating Mom and Dad in the background a house a few siblings and a beloved pet But many of today's teens don't fit this all American image Designing teen library services based on preconceptions leaves many teens out from home schooled and gifted teens to pregnant teens immigrants juvenile delinquents homeless teens and many others Anderson a YALSA Serving the Underserved SUS Trainer shatters the stereotypes showing you how to customize your library service to fit the needs of diverse teens After explaining why it's important to reach out to these kids and contrasting the myths about teens with the realities Anderson details the diverse groups that make up the category of teen and the many situations and experiences that define their library needs She provides step by step plans for connecting with these young adults from creating a positive atmosphere through policies and staff training to building a collection designing library services and programs and providing outreach Interspersed with anecdotes pertinent statistics and useful information this practical work will change the way you think about and work with teens Grades 6-12 Contemporary Authors New Revision Series Scot Peacock, 2001-10 In response to the escalating need for up to date information on writers Contemporary Authors New Revision Series brings researchers the most recent data on the world's most popular authors These exciting and unique author profiles are essential to your holdings because sketches are entirely revised and up to date and completely replace the original Contemporary Authors entries For your convenience a soft cover cumulative index is sent biannually While Gale strives to replicate print content some content may not be available due to rights restrictions Call your Sales Rep for details Atlas of the Baby Boom Generation Neil A.
