Sokoto Caliphate:

The Sokoto Caliphate Murray Last,1967 The Sokoto Caliphate: Values, intellectual tradition and contemporary significance H. Bobboyi,Mahmood Yakubu,2006 Warfare in the Sokoto Caliphate Joseph P. Smaldone,1977 The successful jihad of 1804 in Hausaland resulted in the establishment of the Sokoto Caliphate the largest and most enduring West African polity in the nineteenth century The Sokoto Caliphate: History, economy and society H. Bobboyi,Mahmood Yakubu,2006 A Bibliographical Guide to Sokoto Caliphate Sources Sulaiman Musa,2004 Jihād in West Africa during the Age of Revolutions Paul E. Lovejoy,2016-11-30 In Jihād in West Africa during the Age of Revolutions a preeminent historian of Africa argues that scholars of the Americas and the Atlantic world have not given Africa its due consideration as part of either the Atlantic world or the age of revolutions The book examines the jihād movement in the context of the age of revolutions commonly associated with the American and French revolutions and the erosion of European imperialist powers and shows how West Africa too experienced a period of profound political change in the late eighteenth through the mid nineteenth centuries Paul E Lovejoy argues that West Africa was a vital actor in the Atlantic world and has wrongly been excluded from analyses of the period Among its chief contributions the book reconceptualizes slavery Lovejoy shows that during the decades in question slavery expanded extensively not only in the southern United States Cuba and Brazil but also in the jihād states of West Africa In particular this expansion occurred in the Muslim states of the Sokoto Caliphate Fuuta Jalon and Fuuta Toro At the same time he offers new information on the role antislavery activity in West Africa played in the Atlantic slave trade and the African diaspora Finally Jihād in West Africa during the Age of Revolutions provides unprecedented context for the political and cultural role of Islam in Africa and of the concept of jihād in particular from the eighteenth century into the present Understanding that there is a long tradition of jihād in West Africa Lovejoy argues helps correct the current distortion in understanding the contemporary jihād movement in the Middle East Afghanistan Pakistan and Africa Displacement and the Politics of Violence in Nigeria Paul Ellsworth Lovejoy,Pat Ama Tokunbo Williams,1997 This volume examines the religious ethnic and class basis of political insecurity in Nigeria that has resulted in the maintenance of military rule in the 1990s Political repression and secular strife have made it difficult for the democratic opposition to end military dictatorship Unbroken Chains Martin Plaut,2025-08-28 Slavery has torn apart African societies since at least 2 500 BCE from Egypt to the Cape from Mauritania to Somalia Yet most writing covers just one fraction of this history the horrors of the trans Atlantic slave trade Historians and commentators long neglected the equally sizeable far more protracted phenomenon of Indian Ocean slavery and all but passed over Africa's internal practices from Ethiopian kingdoms enslaving conquered peoples to the Sokoto Caliphate capturing non Muslims on a scale matching that of the US plantations Yet overlooked stories of enslavement matter In 1794 Congress authorised construction of the US Navy's first six ships in response to civilian vessels being seized by North Africa's Barbary corsairs who raided as far as

Britain and the Caribbean enslaving hundreds of thousands of Europeans And since abolition of the trans Atlantic trade international concern has moved from traditional to modern forms of slavery leaving Africans enslaved as chattel today with few champions abroad The UN and African Union are too embarrassed to confront the African leaders still permitting this practice Unbroken Chains offers readers a full accessible history of the myriad bondage systems that have devastated African communities over the millennia It is a haunting sensitive powerful read Sokoto Caliphate Linda Hill,Al,2025-03-19

Sokoto Caliphate explores the rise and influence of this 19th century West African Islamic state Emerging from a revolutionary religious movement led by Usman dan Fodio the Caliphate became a major political and economic force in the Sahel region before European colonialism The book examines how the Caliphate blended Islamic ideals with local African realities creating a unique system of governance For example it wasn't merely a religious movement but a complex political entity integrating diverse populations The book progresses chronologically starting with the socio political context of Hausaland and the grievances that fueled the reformist movement It then details the jihad the establishment of the capital and the appointment of emirs Subsequent chapters delve into the Caliphate's administration Islamic law Sharia economic structures and its participation in trans Saharan trade By examining primary sources and engaging with scholarly debates this book offers a fresh perspective on pre colonial Nigeria and African history emphasizing the agency of African actors

Social Welfare in Muslim Societies in Africa Holger Weiss,2002 In recent decades there has been an increasing attempt by Muslim intellectuals to reflect on the provision of social welfare in Muslim societies in Africa One reason for this is the few if not non existent possibilities of the states to provide for the basic needs of their subjects a situation that has become painfully evident in most African states not only the Muslim ones However public as well as private provision of social welfare is not a new phenomenon in the Muslim world This book deals with a most important and previously largely overlooked theme In the current situation when economically weak African states have great problems providing social amenities for their people the welfare activities of Islamic and other non governmental organizations have become especially important This book provides a number of theoretically and in particular empirically interesting and valuable discussions on various kinds of Muslim social welfare in a number of African countries David Westerlund Associate Professor Faculty of Theology Uppsala University Sweden
